Strolling Magic

For more intimate gatherings, close up shows provide your event audience with up-close access to Craig's magic, giving your guests unique one-on-one experience that will leave them stunned and pleasantly surprised at Craig's smooth style of sleight of hand.

Ideal for formal or informal events, your top clients or personal guests, strolling magic takes a standard event, which has the potential to be bland and forgettable, and creates a lively, exciting vibe that will make your guests feel appreciated and entertained.
