

DFP - BUSINESS

This diploma certifies your ability to use efficiently oral and written French in most recurrent situations of professional communication. The DFP Business certifies that you are able to manage administrative, commercial and relational situations within a company.

Example of activities covered: write a note, write a report, comment on a graph, meet and inform a client, present your professional background, present an argument to a decision-maker, and several other interpersonal, administrative and commercial activities related to business management.

The levels offered:

DFP - Business
A1	✓
A2	✓
B1	✓
B2	✓
C1	✓

Who is it intended for?

→ Any student or professional being at least 16 years old.

What are the skills assessed?

→ Written and spoken information processing

→ Written and oral communication

Click here for more information

DFP examinations are organized at the Alliance Française Malte-Méditerranée. Contact us at info@alliancefr.org.mt for more information.