Dinky Dancers of the Waterways 2 - 4 Year Olds & their grown up

Date: Sunday 19th September 2021

Time: 12 noon

40 minute Dinky Dancers session for 2 - 4 year olds and their grown up

The Rickmansworth Waterways Trust, education centre over the canal from 99 Church St, Rickmansworth WD3 1JD

Join Hannah for a canal themed adventure with this active and upbeat Dinky Dancers session. With plenty of music, games and movement, this session helps develop your child's motor, creativity and confidence skills as well as being a fantastic opportunity for you both to have lots of fun together.

Waterways Arts Collective

Dance Teacher: Hannah Warren

Hannah is a freelance dance artist and teacher, based in Buckinghamshire and Hertfordshire. She graduated from Falmouth University's Dance & Choreography course in 2018 and is currently teaching a wide range of ages with Active Creative, Stagecoach High Wycombe, Henley & Marlow, Clubs Complete and Invisible Threads Dance.

Hannah has been going on narrow boat holidays all her life and is intrigued by the history of the canal network. She is excited to merge this fascination with dance and movement at the Dinky Dancers of the Waterways session!
