Thank you for your interest in our 100 hour Certification in the clinical use of whole food nutrition. Our emphasis is on health and prevention, not pathology and disease.

The CCWFN course is designed to help you be able to implement what you learn into your practice efficiently. The material is designed to meet the needs of practitioners and their staff.

We offer two different certifications: the Clinician certification for licensed practitioners (CCWFN) and the Technician certification for staff members or non-licensed practitioners, (CTWFN).

Practitioner Requirements:

- You must be a licensed MD, ND, L.Ac, DC, DDS, RN, RD or CN, etc.
- Complete 67 hours of required course material, including the Foundations of Nutritional Therapies (FNT) Series, Module 1 & 2 and Nutritional Biochemistry.
- All Exams must be passed with at least an 85% grade point.
- 33 hours of elective courses, including our weekly Teleconference.

Staff Requirements: Apply as a Patient Advocate, or Technician (CTWFN).

- A letter of sponsorship from a licensed practitioner. This letter must be on the practitioner's letterhead, and requires no other obligation.
- Complete 67 hours of required course material, including the Foundations of Nutritional Therapies (FNT) series, Module 1 & 2, Office Assistant Training* and Disease is Optional*.
- Module 1 & 2 Exams must be passed with at least a 75% grade point.
- 33 hours of electives, including the weekly Teleconferences.

The emphases in these courses are more directed towards general food-based nutrition, lifestyle and diet for support in a practice.*

Non-licensed applicants who would like to pursue a Clinician certification:

- Must pass all exams with an 85% average
- Complete Module 3: Nutritional Biochemistry
- Document two years of practical experience in a clinical practice

The weekly teleconferences are review lectures for Modules 1 & 2, with Q&A time for mentoring. All exams are open book. You are encouraged to fill in the answers in your Exam booklet as you study the course material. Students have two years to complete the course, but can request an extension for any reason if needed. Please contact us if you have any questions. Thank you.

Application overview

The cost of materials alone for the course is approximately $4,500 by enrolling in the 100-hour CCWFN Certification Program and supporting IFNH you save around $1,500. The total costs for enrollees are $2,999 for a Clinician and $2,599 for a Technician. The total cost includes all the required readings, if the applicant already owns any of the required readings, the cost of the book would be subtracted from the total cost. The certification program is based on the Nutritional Exam and the Foundations of Nutritional Therapy program, which encompass certain basic philosophies and procedures. The FNT course is required curriculum. For those who have taken the FNT course in the past 15 years, a review program is available at a reduced fee.
