Production capacity

I. Personnel

More than 100 employees including 20 skilled tailors, 10 designers, lace-makers and 70 Bead-bonders.

II. Process

In order to create a product, we first sketch on the designs, then the cutting -> sewing -> lace (the design team does) -> Beaded.

III. Why you should choose us

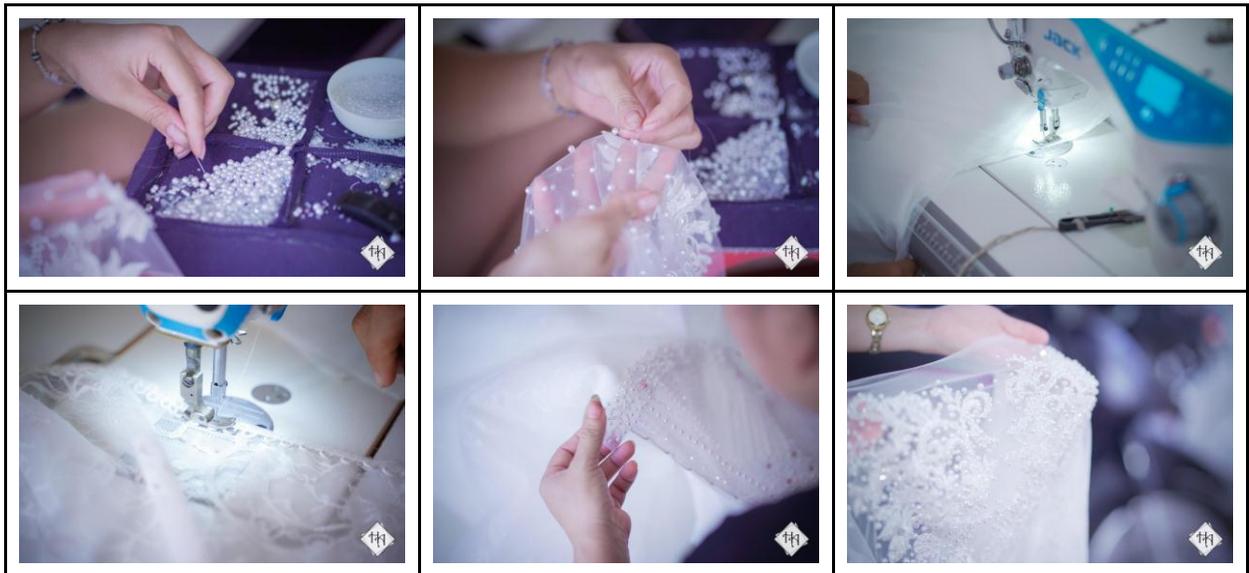

We are a handcrafted traditional sewing factory with the seams and the diligence of the hardworking people who create the best product.

Production

H&A offers a variety of products for wedding dresses: wedding dresses, long dresses, princess dresses, prom dresses, men's and women's suits; with customized service or specific design advice. Cherishing each wedding outfit, and being able to execute large orders, is the difference of H&A wedding fashion.

Along with a large-scale, diverse and abundant material inventory, H&A is also known as a source of raw materials for many wedding dress manufacturing facilities. The source of raw materials is always under control to be ready for big orders, and updated with designs, which is one of the top priorities in H&A's operation.
