

Companies who want to grow internal geniuses and create enlightened leaders to ensure them a competitive edge call Mila Diamond

Mila Diamond, ASB, CL

Expert in Personal Empowerment & Organizational Brilliance

Speeches titles:

- Creating Enlightened Leadership Culture
- Stepping Into Your Zone of Brilliance
- Diamond Mind Foundation – Intensive Workshop for New Millennia Thought Leaders

Major universities and business schools now offer meditation along with business success training: Berkeley, Harvard, MIT, Princeton, Stanford, NYU and others. Companies like Apple, IBM, Yahoo!, Google, Deutsche Bank, Hughes Aircraft, Texas Instruments and Raytheon have also joined the ranks of organizations that provide meditation training to their executives and employees to help guarantee their individual success. Mila Diamond teaches powerful meditation and mental conditioning tools for companies, colleges and athletic associations to help their employees, students and athletes realize their highest potential while, at the same time, reducing stress and enhancing the quality of their lives. Mila Diamond was named one of World's 100 Best Speakers of Toastmasters International and Semifinalist at the TI Annual International Convention 2013.

References:

“Mila is one of those extraordinary people who have the complete package for teaching, consulting, motivating, and helping people change their lives. She has a unique gift for seeing into the important part of every person and encouraging and instructing them to realize their potential in life and business. Mila is a remarkable asset to any team that wants to rise to the extraordinary.” - Dave Edmiston, M.D., Foundation for a Healthy America

“Mila is a true client-advocate with a brilliant analytical mind, an amazing attitude, and a genuine spirit of "servant leadership" with which she helps client organizations transform themselves beyond any perceived limitations they may hold. Mila leaves an enduring, positive impact on everyone she works with, myself included.” - John Kapson, Cooper Human Systems
