Dear Mr Kane,

It goes without saying that you are at the peak of your football career. Surely you must want to support the next generation of football heroes to become the stars of football's future? That's why I'm writing to ask if you would pay a visit to my school and coach our team – the Wilton Wildcats.

Undoubtedly, your great leadership skills led England to success in many World Cup matches in 2018. The Wilton Wildcats require skilled and experienced leadership to achieve our potential. Only someone with your expertise would be able to steer our team to victory. A coaching session from you would guarantee a successful future for the Wilton Wildcats this season.

The Wilton Wildcats' track record has taken some unjustified hits over the past few seasons. Despite the huge effort of the team, goals are simply not being scored. With your irrefutable reputation and skills as a superstar striker, you are the missing piece of the puzzle that the Wilton Wildcats need to improve their game. A simple opportunity for guidance from you could be the difference between league success or failure. Could you generously provide just one coaching session to open up years of footballing opportunities?

Additionally, the prodigies of Wilton Wildcats are a dedicated and enthusiastic group of sportspeople. They train every Thursday night, come rain or shine. Shouldn't their dedication be rewarded with success? If you join us for a training session at your convenience, I am certain that your experience with us would be fun and enjoyable for you and any colleagues you bring along.

Ultimately, the future success of the Wilton Wildcats lies in your hands. With just one visit from you, morale can be boosted, skills can be learnt and league victory could be achieved. I'm positive that you'll see the merit in this opportunity.

Yours sincerely,

Georgia Russell

Dear Mrs Hassan,

As you know, this is year 6's final year at the wonderful Palm Primary School. We have all very much enjoyed our time here and would love to end the year in the best way possible. That's why I am writing to you, as a hard-working member of year 6, to ask that we are allowed to have a prom in July.

It is indisputable that the current year 6 class are the best class that Palm Primary School has ever had. Our humour, attitude, work ethic and brilliance alone are enough of a reason to celebrate. Last year's year six had a simple leaving assembly; this surely does not reflect the superior standard of our class. The only logical step is to hold a prom – the most fitting way to reflect the high standards and excellence of year 6.

Furthermore, the expected SATs results of year 6 will far exceed any gained before by Palm Primary School students. Without a doubt, this is as a result of unrivalled hard work and dedication during our studies at this school. Shouldn't our unwavering effort be justly rewarded? If future classes are to succeed as we have, it is clear that a worthy reward, such as a prom, would motivate and enthuse them. It is the least that hard working students deserve after exam pressures.

Ultimately, it cannot be forgotten that a year 6 prom will provide the final opportunity for year 6 to spend enjoyable time together before progressing onto different high schools. Surely, you would not deny us a last celebration together before we head in different directions? A prom would be crucial to our happy memories of Palm Primary School which would last a lifetime.

In brief, with your support and a small budget, we could make year 6's dreams a reality and truly reward the hard-work and effort that year 6 have shown during their time at Palm Primary School. In conclusion, I'm very hopeful that you will support this exciting opportunity.

Yours sincerely,

Dear Sir or Madam,

I have recently been informed of your plans to cancel the kerbside collection of plastic waste – an idea I vehemently oppose. I am confident that, upon understanding the consequences of this decision, the council will abolish plans to make such cuts.

In order to cancel the current, effective kerbside collection, the council intends to provide costly additional bins. This is sure to greatly impact the council's budget with detrimental effect. Many people believe that the initial cost of the new bins will be greater than the total cost of maintaining current collections. It therefore seems wasteful to change the current way of working. I am confident that the council would not intentionally make a wasteful decision.

Residents fear that the council's proposed changes will result in unpleasant, dirty waste littering the streets due to lack of proper recycling methods. Our town's streets are likely to become overrun with rodents feasting from the unhygienic litter which has not been properly recycled due to council cuts. Inevitably, this will lead to a rise in pest control costs. This would cost the council more money than the initial cuts would save – a completely avoidable deficit.

Additionally, the environmental impact of this seemingly reckless decision could be catastrophic. Although you acknowledge that your current waste treatment facility attempts to take plastic waste out of regular collections, how many pieces of plastic waste are simply missed? This oversight could result in millions of pieces of perfectly recyclable plastic being carelessly discarded into landfill, remaining there indefinitely rather than being reused in a valuable way. The council simply must prioritise environmental wellbeing.

Ultimately, the public are adamantly opposed to the council's decision and demand a meeting to present all relevant facts. Once these are presented, I am confident that the council will see the error in their ways and revoke the decision.

Yours faithfully, Mr

I. Rate

Dear Ms Vengeance,

As the new year breaks and our beloved town is in peril, I appeal to you for your vital help in catching the Phantom Prankster. I know that this is an opportunity you will not be able to refuse.

First and foremost, the Phantom Prankster is a formidable enemy. It is going to require someone of immense strength and agility to match his prowess – attributes only you can bring. Your unrivalled abilities make you the ultimate candidate to provide your services and the glory you will achieve from the victory will be renowned across the land. It's an opportunity you cannot miss.

A useful piece of information to note is that the Phantom Prankster is currently suffering from the flu; his defences are weakened and his judgements are temporarily clouded. Due to his illness, he has not been moving around as regularly as he likes to – the perfect opportunity to pounce whilst he least expects it. Surely you don't want to miss the perfect opportunity to use his flu to your advantage?

A fact you must consider is that the residents of Victimstown are at their wit's end. They live in fear of the Phantom Prankster – many refusing to leave their home in the wake of his terror. The tricks he plays leave them embarrassed and confused: who would want to live this way? His reign over the town must come to a swift end.

Without a doubt, you are the only superhero with the skills, knowledge and strength to battle the Phantom Prankster. Your generosity and warm heart make me absolutely certain that you will want to protect Victimstown at any cost. Don't let us down.

Yours sincerely,

Mrs Victoria Timmins

Dear Emperor Nero,

It goes without saying that you are a very inspirational leader to your people, the Romans. Surely you must want them to live long and prosperous lives under your rule? I am writing to you today to demand that your Roman people leave my land immediately, or I will make sure there is nothing left of them!

Despite your best efforts to make us follow that dreadful agreement King Prosatugus signed before he died, we are not willing to negotiate with you anymore. We are free people! We refuse to be your slaves, give you our treasures or let you eat from our harvests. Not now, not ever.

Undoubtedly, this land belongs to us, the Celts. We have been here for thousands of years and we are not going anywhere. Seizing our land and displacing our people is completely unjustified. You have your land, Rome. This is where your people should stay. Should you disagree, you and your people will come to a treacherous end.

Ultimately, the fate of your people is in your hands. I hope you make the right choice and leave our land before it is too late.

Yours sincerely,

Queen Boudica
