

Pupa / Chrysalis	Caterpillar	Adult butterfly	Eggs
------------------	-------------	-----------------	------

The body of the butterfly develops inside this.

The butterfly lays eggs on leaves.

The butterfly emerges from the pupa and flies off to find flowers to feed from.

The egg hatches into a caterpillar, which eats leaves, and grows until it is ready to turn into a pupa/chrysalis.