

Year 2 Glossary

The following glossary includes all of the technical grammatical terms taught through the national curriculum for English in year 2.

The first column indicates the year group in which the concept is first introduced. Where a circled number is recorded, children are required to know and use the terminology from that year group forwards.

	Term	Guidance	Example
1 ②	adjective	The surest way to identify adjectives is by the ways they can be used: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>before a noun, to make the noun's meaning more specific (i.e. to modify the noun), or</li> <li>after the verb be, as its complement.</li> </ul> Adjectives cannot be modified by other adjectives. This distinguishes them from nouns, which can be.	It was a beautiful cake. [The adjective modifies the noun] The cake was delicious. [the adjective follows the verb, be]
②	adverb	The surest way to identify adverbs is by the ways they can be used: they can modify a verb, an adjective, another adverb or even a whole clause. Adverbs have many different meanings and functions. They are especially important for indicating the time, manner, place, degree and frequency of something.	I never get up early at the weekends. [time] Walk across the road carefully! [manner] When we got there, the tickets had sold out. [place] It's rather cold, isn't it? [degree] I'm always losing my keys. [frequency] Secondly, I finished the sausage roll. [number]
②	apostrophe	The apostrophe ' is a punctuation mark. It serves two purposes: Omission - the marking of omission of one or more letters (as in the contraction of do not to don't). Possession - the marking of possessive case (as in the eagle's feathers, or in one month's time).	do not becomes don't [the apostrophe marks the omission of the letter o in the contracted form] He picked up the eagle's feather. [the apostrophe marks the possessive case – the feather belonging to the eagle]
i	auxiliary verb	The auxiliary verbs are: be, have, do and the modal verbs. They can be used to make questions and negative statements. In addition: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>be is used in the progressive and passive</li> <li>have is used in the perfect</li> </ul>	They are winning the match. [be used in the progressive] Have you finished your picture? [have used to make a question, and the perfect] No, I don't know him. [do used to make a negative; no other auxiliary is present]

		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>do is used to form questions and negative statements if no other auxiliary verb is present</li> </ul>	Will you come with me or not? [modal verb will used to make a question about the other person's willingness]
1 ③	clause	A clause is a special type of phrase whose head (the word around which it is based) is a verb. Clauses can sometimes be complete sentences. Clauses may be main or subordinate.	It was raining. [single-clause sentence] It was raining but we were indoors. [two finite clauses] If you are coming to the party, please let us know. [finite subordinate clause inside a finite main clause] Usha went upstairs to play on her computer. [non-finite clause]
②	command	A command is one of the four sentence types. The purpose of a command is to give instructions or orders. Imperative verbs are used and the subject may be redundant. Commands may be punctuated with either a full-stop or an exclamation mark.	Be my friend. Get down! Shut the door, please.
②	compound, compounding	A compound word contains at least two root words in its morphology.	superman, whiteboard
2 ③	conjunction	A conjunction links two words or phrases together. There are two main types of conjunctions: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>co-ordinating conjunctions (e.g. and) link two words or phrases together as an equal pair</li> <li>subordinating conjunctions (e.g. when) introduce a subordinate clause.</li> </ul>	James bought a bat and ball. [links the words bat and ball as an equal pair] Kylie is young but she can kick the ball hard. [links two clauses as an equal pair] Everyone watches when Kyle does back-flips. [introduces a subordinate clause] Joe can't practise kicking because he's injured. [introduces a subordinate clause]
2	co-ordinate, co-ordination	Words or phrases are co-ordinated if they are linked as an equal pair by a co-ordinating conjunction (i.e. and, but, or). In the examples on the right, the co-ordinated elements are shown in bold, and the conjunction is underlined.	Susan and Amra met in a café. [links the words Susan and Amra as an equal pair] They talked and drank tea for an hour. [links two clauses as an equal pair] Susan got a bus but Amra walked. [links two clauses as an equal pair]

		The difference between co-ordination and subordination is that, in subordination, the two linked elements are not equal.
②	exclamation	An exclamation is one of the four sentence types. The form of an exclamation's main clause is one that begins either how or what and where the verb is placed at the end of the clause. Its purpose is to exclaim. It is punctuated with an exclamation mark. Exclamation sentences differ from exclamations. Without the verb, it is not a sentence.	What a good friend you are! How wonderful you look tonight!
1 ②	noun	Nouns are sometimes called 'naming words' because they name people, places and 'things'; this is often true, but it doesn't help to distinguish nouns from other word classes. The surest way to identify nouns is by the ways they can be used after determiners such as the: for example, most nouns will fit into the frame "The __ matters/matter." Nouns may be classified as: proper – the name of a person, places, or thing (i.e. its own name). It includes days of the week and months of the year, but not seasons. Proper nouns start with a capital letter. common – a class of person, place or thing. It does not have a capital letter (e.g. car, animal or planet). Subclasses of common nouns include: countable – things you can count (e.g. boy, thing) non-countable - things you cannot count (e.g. food, music) abstract – the name of things you cannot see or touch (e.g. love). gerunds – nouns formed from verbs, ending -ing. (e.g. swimming).	Our dog bit the burglar on his behind! My big brother did an amazing jump on his skateboard. Actions speak louder than words. Not nouns: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• He's behind you! [this names a place, but is a preposition, not a noun]</li> <li>• She can jump so high! [this names an action, but is a verb, not a noun]</li> </ul> common, countable: a book, books, two chocolates, one day, fewer ideas common, non-countable: money, some chocolate, less imagination proper, countable: Marilyn, London, Wednesday

	Term	Guidance	Example
②	past tense	Verbs in the past tense are commonly used to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• talk about the past</li> <li>• talk about imagined situations</li> <li>• make a request sound more polite.</li> </ul> Most verbs take a suffix -ed, to form their past tense, but many commonly-used verbs are irregular.	Tom and Chris showed me their new TV. [names an event in the past] Antonio went on holiday to Brazil. [names an event in the past; irregular past of go] I wish I had a puppy. [names an imagined situation, not a situation in the past] I was hoping you'd help tomorrow. [makes an implied request sound more polite]
2	perfect	The perfect form of a verb generally calls attention to the consequences of a prior event; for example, he has gone to lunch implies that he is still away, in contrast with he went to lunch. 'Had gone to lunch' takes a past time point (i.e. when we arrived) as its reference point and is another way of establishing time relations in a text. The perfect tense is formed by: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• turning the verb into its past participle inflection</li> <li>• adding a form of the verb have before it.</li> </ul> The simple tenses (present and past) may be combined in English with the perfect and progressive.	Usha had been practising for an hour when I called. [past perfect progressive] She has downloaded some songs. [present perfect; now she has some songs] I had eaten lunch when you came. [past perfect; I wasn't hungry when you came]
②	phrase	A phrase is a group of words that are grammatically connected so that they stay together, and that expand a single word, called the 'head'. The phrase is a noun phrase if its head is a noun, a preposition phrase if its head is a preposition, and so on; but if the head is a verb, the phrase is called a clause. Phrases can be made up of other phrases.	She waved to her mother. [a noun phrase, with the noun mother as its head] She waved to her mother. [a preposition phrase, with the preposition to as its head] She waved to her mother. [a clause, with the verb waved as its head]
①	plural	A plural noun normally has a suffix -s or -es and means 'more than one'. There are a few nouns with different morphology in the plural (e.g. mice, formulae).	dogs [more than one dog] boxes [more than one box] mice [more than one mouse]
1 ③	prefix	A prefix is added at the beginning of a word in order to turn it into another word. Contrast suffix.	overtake, disappear

	Term	Guidance	Example
②	present tense	Verbs in the present tense are commonly used to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• talk about the present</li> <li>• talk about the future.</li> </ul> They may take a suffix –s (depending on the subject).	Jamal goes to the pool every day. [describes a habit that exists now] He can swim. [describes a state that is true now] The bus arrives at three. [scheduled now] My friends are coming to play. [describes a plan in progress now]
2	progressive	The progressive (also known as the ‘continuous’) form of a verb generally describes events in progress. It is formed by combining the verb’s present participle (e.g. singing) with a form of the verb be (e.g. he was singing). The progressive can also be combined with the perfect (e.g. he has been singing).	Michael is singing in the store room. [present progressive] Amanda was making a patchwork quilt. [past progressive] Usha had been practising for an hour when I called. [past perfect progressive]
1	punctuation	Punctuation includes any conventional features of writing other than spelling and general layout: the standard punctuation marks . , ; : ? ! - – ( ) “ ” ‘ ’ , and also word-spaces, capital letters, apostrophes, paragraph breaks and bullet points. Handwriting is a key factor in communicating correct punctuation. One important role of punctuation is to indicate sentence boundaries.	John went to his house. He stayed there till tea-time. You are my friend. [statement] Are you my friend? [question] Be my friend! [command] What a good friend you are! [exclamation]
②	question	A question is one of the four sentence types. The form of a question’s main clause is one in which an auxiliary or modal verb is moved to the front of the clause. Its purpose is to ask for information. It is punctuated with a question mark.	Are you my friend?
1	root word	Morphology breaks words down into root words, which can stand alone, and suffixes or prefixes which can’t. For example, help is the root word for other words in its word family such as helpful and helpless, and also for its inflections such as helping.	played [the root word is play] unfair [the root word is fair] football [the root words are foot and ball]

		Compound words (e.g. help-desk) contain two or more root words. When looking in a dictionary, we sometimes have to look for the root word (or words) of the word we are interested in.
①	sentence	A sentence is a group of words which are grammatically connected to each other but not to any words outside the sentence. The form of a sentence's main clause shows whether it is being used as a statement, a question, a command or an exclamation. A sentence may consist of a single clause or it may contain several clauses held together by subordination or co-ordination. Sentences should be classified using the terms 'single-clause sentence' and 'multi-clause sentence'.	You are my friend. [statement]  Are you my friend? [question]  Be my friend. [command]  What a good friend you are! [exclamation]
②	statement	A statement is one of the four sentence types. The form of a statement has its usual pattern of subject – verb – object. Its purpose is to convey a fact or piece of information. It is punctuated with a full-stop.	You are my friend.
2	subordinate, subordination	A subordinate word or phrase tells us more about the meaning of the word it is subordinate to. Subordination can be thought of as an unequal relationship between a subordinate word and a main word. For example: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• an adjective is subordinate to the noun it modifies</li> <li>• subjects and objects are subordinate to their verbs.</li> </ul> Subordination is much more common than the equal relationship of co-ordination.	We can watch TV when we've finished. [when we've finished is subordinate to watch] big dogs [big is subordinate to dogs] Big dogs need long walks. [big dogs and long walks are subordinate to need]
1 ②	suffix	A suffix is an 'ending', used at the end of one word to turn it into another word. Unlike root words,	call – called  teach – teacher [turns a verb into a noun]

	Term	Guidance	Example
		suffixes cannot stand on their own as a complete word.	terror – terrorise [turns a noun into a verb] green – greenish [leaves word class unchanged]
②	tense	In English, tense is the choice between present and past verbs, which is special because it is signalled by inflections and normally indicates differences of time. The simple tenses (present and past) may be combined in English with the perfect and progressive.	He studies. [present tense – present time] He studied yesterday. [past tense – past time] He studies tomorrow, or else! [present tense – future time] He may study tomorrow. [present tense + infinitive – future time] He plans to study tomorrow. [present tense + infinitive – future time] If he studied tomorrow, he'd see the difference! [past tense – imagined future]
1 ②	verb	A verb is a word or phrase that describes an action, state, or feeling. The surest way to identify verbs is by the ways they can be used: they can usually have a tense, either present or past (and also future). Verbs are sometimes called 'doing or being words'.	He lives in Birmingham. [present tense] The teacher wrote a song for the class. [past tense] He likes chocolate. [present tense; not an action] He knew my father. [past tense; not an action]
①	word	A word is a unit of grammar: it can be selected and moved around relatively independently, but cannot easily be split. In punctuation, words are normally separated by word spaces. Sometimes, a sequence that appears grammatically to be two words is collapsed into a single written word, indicated with a hyphen or apostrophe (e.g. well-built, he's).
