2nd SUNDAY IN LENT (B)

THE TRANSFIGURATION OF THE LORD

While Jesus was praying his face changed and his clothing became radiant white. It wasn't that Jesus reflected light, it wasn't light shining on Jesus, but it was light coming from Jesus. Now Jesus' divinity shone forth through his humanity. When Jesus is in prayer with his Father we see his true self; his divinity is revealed like never before, as he shares in the radiance of his Father. In the Nicene Creed we profess that Jesus is truly divine, begotten of the Father, consubstantial with the Father, "God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God." When Jesus was transfigured, the Father and Son, Light and Light, are in prayerful union. When we pray, light doesn't shine through us but we ask God to shine his light on us. When Moses came down Mount Sinai his face shone because he had been talking with God (Ex 34:29) and he had to put a veil on his face (Ex 34:34-35). When we pray, we enter the presence of God, God's light. Our faces do not shine, but we ask to be enlightened in prayer. Peter said to Jesus, "it is good that we are here" and when we pray, we are our truest self because our longing for God is now being fulfilled.
