

Social Studies Worksheet Class IV
India and Northern Mountains

1. Who am I?

- a) I am the largest state in India. _____
- b) I am called 'abode of snow'. _____
- c) I am the seventh largest country in the world. _____
- d) I act as a natural barrier between India and its neighbours. _____
- e) I am the lowest range of Himalayas. _____
- f) I am the highest peak in India. _____
- g) I am the highest peak in the world. _____

2. Write True/False against the given statement.

- a) India has seven physical divisions. _____
- b) India shares a common boundary with Pakistan, Nepal, Bhutan and China only.

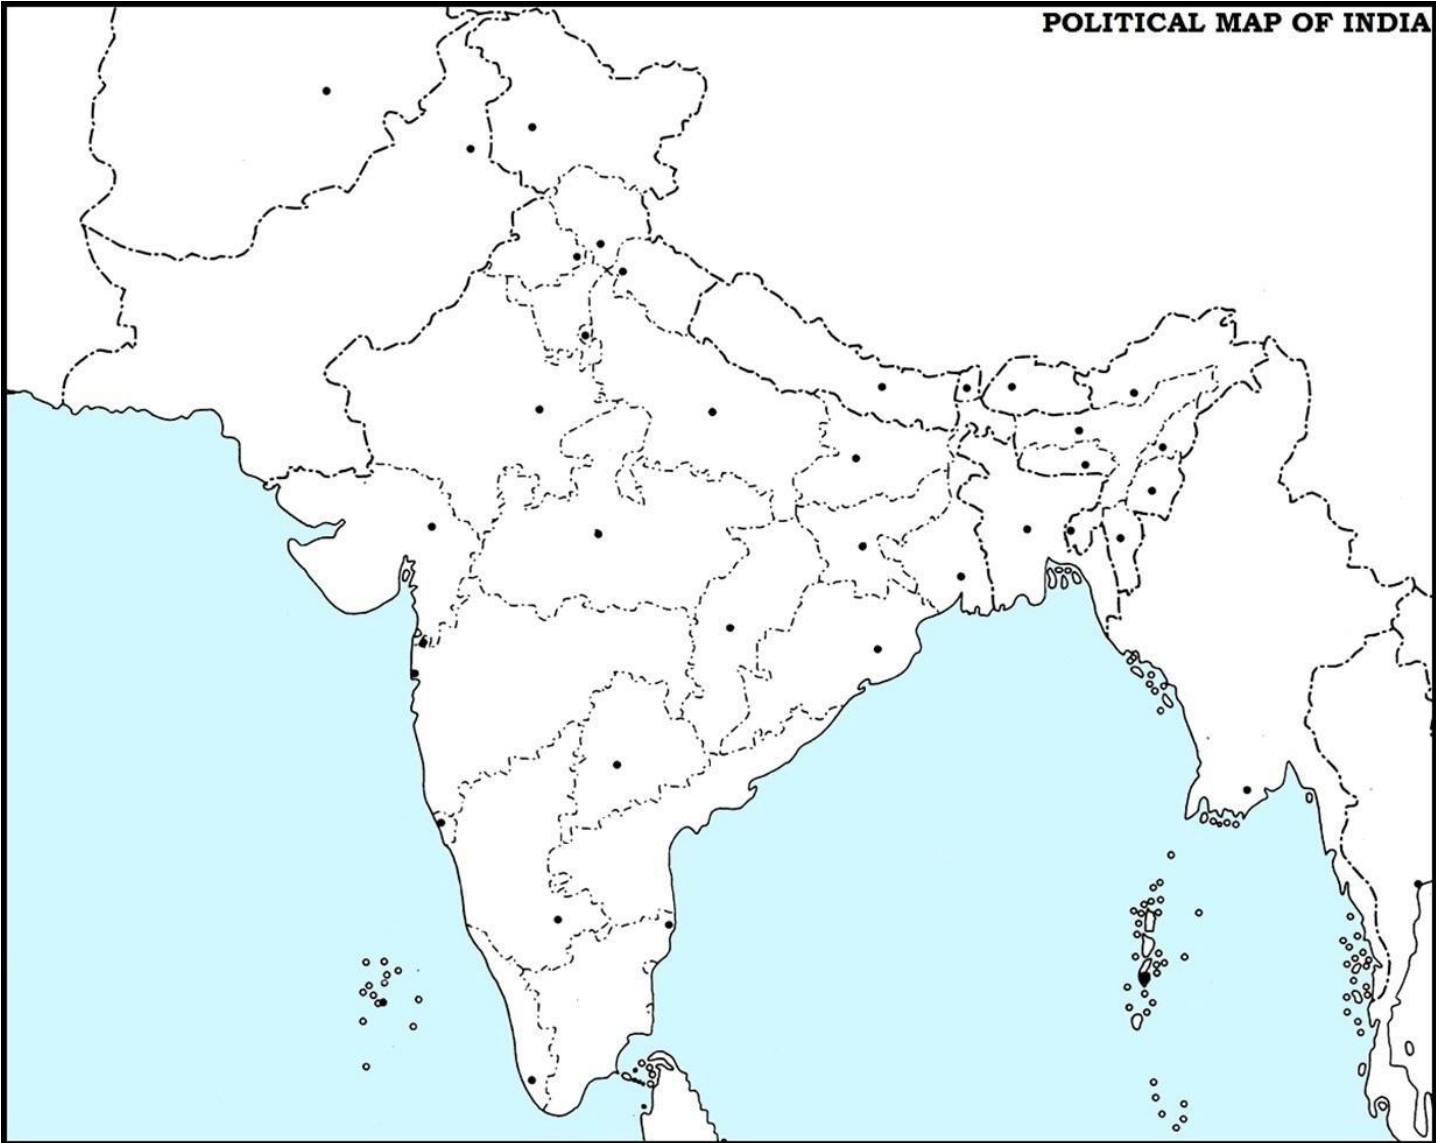

- c) The Himalayas stretch from Jammu and Kashmir in the west all the way to Arunachal Pradesh in the east. _____
- d) Mountains in Himachal range are always covered with snow. _____
- e) Himalayas prevent cold winds from the north from entering India. _____
- f) Terrace farming is common in the Himadri range. _____

3. Match the following.

- | | |
|-----------------------|--------------------------------|
| a) Middle Himalayas | New Delhi |
| b) Central Government | Hill range in Shiwalik region |
| c) Darjeeling | Himachal |
| d) Masses of ice | Smallest state of India |
| e) Garo, Khasi, Mizo | Glaciers |
| f) Goa | Hill station in Himachal range |

4. Mark any two neighboring countries and states that lie in the northern mountain region of India.

POLITICAL MAP OF INDIA

Sharya