

Literacy Genres Covered this term:

Persuasive arguments
Non-chronological reports
Performance Poetry
Life Cycle stories
Interview
Autobiography

Year 5
Summer Term Themes

Round and Round
No Way Back
Our Commonwealth

Mathematics Topics

Weekly arithmetic skills

Geometry:

Angles
Shapes
Position and direction

Measurement:

Converting units
Volume
Perimeter and area

Design and Technology & Art

To create a piece of art work from a range of genres to support work on life cycles.
To produce a moving vehicle using renewable energy.

Humanities (Geography and R.E)

- Explore in simple terms the origins of the British Empire and why it is such a controversial period of British history.
- Explain why the Commonwealth was created at the end of the British Empire.
- Research the history of the Commonwealth Games and the origins of some of the countries' traditional games and sports.

To understand what it means to participate and lead and the qualities of a leader.
To understand how to be loyal and steadfast.
To live by rules and understand our roots.

Science Topics

Life Cycles
Reversible and irreversible changes

Computing

Understand why 3D modelling is important.
•Gain knowledge of Google SketchUp and the different 3D modelling tools.
•Be able to create their own 3D model using Google Sketch Up.

French

To develop oral and written sentences. Revising basic grammar.
Topics include: personality, the planets, café, role play and holidays.

In Music we will be:

Developing knowledge of time signatures and key signatures to compose melodies.
Learning to use the grand staff to play and notate a short piece of music.

P.E

The children will develop their striking and fielding skills through cricket.

In athletics they will work on running, jumping and throwing skills and begin to use technical phrases.

OTHER INFORMATION

Chemistry Workshops
5C 27th May
5F 28th May

RSHE-

To understand how images are altered
To have an awareness of growing responsibilities
To be aware of ways to maintain healthy mental health