

PROMOTION OF ACCESS TO INFORMATION MANUAL

A MANUAL PREPARED IN ACCORDANCE WITH SECTION 51 OF THE PROMOTION OF ACCESS TO INFORMATION ACT, NO. 2 OF 2000
AND
PROTECTION OF PERSONAL INFORMATION ACT, NO 4 OF 2003

THE ASCENSION GROUP
2021/2022

1. Introduction

- 1.1. The Ascension PAIA Manual, as defined below, has been prepared in accordance with section 51 of the Promotion of Access to Information Act No. 2 of 2000, as amended (“PAIA”) and to address requirements of Protection of Personal Information Act, No 4 of 2003 (“POPIA”).
- 1.2. PAIA was promulgated during March 2001 and was primarily put into place to actively promote a society in which the people of South Africa have effective access to information, which enables them to more fully exercise and protect their rights.
- 1.3. The South African Human Rights Commission is responsible for compiling a guide that provides details on how to use PAIA.
- 1.4. The South African Human Rights Commission guide can be downloaded from the following link:

- 1.5. In terms of Section 51(1) of PAIA, private bodies are required to compile a manual that provides information regarding the subjects and categories of records held by such private bodies. This Manual, being the Ascension PAIA Manual, is intended to fulfil this requirement. Accordingly, this Manual provides a reference to the records Ascension holds and the process that needs to be adopted by persons and/or entities to access such records. All requests for access to information should be addressed to the contact person as identified in section 6.2 of this Manual, as he/she is Ascension’ Information Officer.
- 1.6. The Ascension PAIA Manual may be amended from time to time and as soon as any amendments have been effected, the latest version of the Ascension PAIA Manual will be published and distributed in accordance with PAIA.
- 1.7. A Requester is invited to contact the Information Officer should he or she require any assistance in respect of the use or content of this Manual.
- 1.8. A copy of the Ascension PAIA Manual will be available for inspection at:
 - 1.8.1. Ascension’ registered head office (details of which are set out in paragraph Error! Reference source not found. below); and
 - 1.8.2. the offices of the SAHRC.
- 1.9. Ascension adopted this Policy on 3 December 2018, and was reviewed to incorporate the POPIA requirements on 30 June 2021.

2. Scope

This Manual has been prepared in respect of Ascension Capital Holdings (Pty) Ltd, Ascension Capital Partners Fund Managers (Pty) Ltd and its subsidiaries (“Ascension”).

3. Purpose

- 3.1 The purpose of the PAIA Act is to promote the right of access to information, to foster a culture of transparency and accountability within Ascension by giving the right to information that is required for the exercise or protection of any right and to actively promote a society in which the people of South Africa have effective access to information to enable them to exercise and protect their rights.
- 3.2 In order to promote effective governance of private bodies, it is necessary to ensure that everyone is empowered and educated to understand their rights in relation to public and private bodies.
- 3.3 Section 9 of PAIA recognizes that the right to access information cannot be unlimited and should be subjected to justifiable limitations, including, but not limited to:
- 3.3.1 limitation aimed at the reasonable protection of privacy;
 - 3.3.2 commercial confidentiality;
 - 3.3.3 effective, efficient and good governance,
- and in a manner which balances that right with any other rights, including such rights contained in the Bill of Rights in the Constitution.
- 3.4 This PAIA Manual complies with the requirements of the guide contained in section 10 of the PAIA Act and recognizes that upon commencement of POPIA, that the appointed Information Regulator will be responsible to regulate compliance with the PAIA Act and its regulations by private and public bodies.

7.5. Note that the accessibility of the records may be subject to the grounds of refusal set out in this PAIA Manual.

7.6. Amongst other, records deemed confidential on the part of a third party, will necessitate permission from the third party concerned, in addition to normal requirements, before Ascension will consider access.

8. Records that can be accessed without a formal request (i.e a formal request as defined in PAIA)

8.1. Ascension does not hold any information that is available for general public access.

8.2. Records of a public nature, typically those disclosed on the Ascension may be accessed without the need to submit a formal application.

8.3. Other non-confidential records, such as statutory records maintained at Companies and Intellectual Property Commission, may also be accessed without the need to submit a formal application. However, please note that an appointment to view such records will still have to be made with the Information Officer.

- 8.4. Where applicable to its operations, Ascension retains records and documents in terms of the legislation below. Unless disclosure is prohibited in terms of legislation, regulations, contractual agreement or otherwise, records that are required to be made available in terms of these shall be made available for inspection by interested parties in terms of the requirements and conditions of PAIA and POPIA or in terms of the below mentioned legislation and applicable internal policies, should such interested parties be entitled to such information.
- 8.5. In terms of the following Acts, we are required to ensure that certain categories of records are available for access as prescribed by each Act:
- 8.5.1. Basic Conditions of Employment Act, No. 75 of 1997;
 - 8.5.2. Companies Act, No. 61 of 1973, as amended (repealed);

 - 8.5.21. Unemployment Insurance Contributions Act, No. 4 of 2002; and
 - 8.5.22. Value Added Tax Act, No. 89 of 1991.
- 8.6. Notification of the availability of these records in terms of these Acts has not yet been given to the Cabinet Minister of Justice.
- 8.7. Please note that while Ascension has made every effort to identify all pertinent legislation, we cannot guarantee that all legislation has been included. Should you be aware of any specific legislation that should be included, and which has been omitted, please contact our Information Officer. Your assistance in this regard will be most appreciated.

9. Procedure to be followed when submitting a formal request to access information

- 9.1. Records, whether specifically listed in this Manual or not, will only be made available subject to the provisions of PAIA. A request for access to a Record that does not fall within the categories identified in Section 8.4 of this manual must be done formally either via conventional mail, e-mail or fax.

- 9.2. The Requester must use the prescribed format (Government Notice Number 187, Regulation 6) to make the request for access to a Record. This must be made to the Information Officer at the address, fax number or electronic mail address of the body concerned. The Request must be accompanied by the prescribed request fee (refer to Section 11 of the Manual in this regard).
- 9.3. The Information Officer will respond to a request within 30 days of receiving same, which response shall indicate whether the Request for access to information has been granted or not.
- 9.4. Please note that a Request for access to information can be refused in the event that the Request does not comply with the procedural requirements of PAIA. In addition, the successful completion and submission of an access Request form does not automatically allow the Requestor access to the requested record.
- 9.5. The Requester must provide sufficient detail on the Request form to enable the Information Officer to identify the record and the Requester. The Requester should also indicate which form of access is required and specify a postal address, fax number in South Africa or email address. The Requester should also indicate if, in addition to a written reply, any other manner is to be used to inform the Requester and state the necessary particulars to be so informed.
- 9.6. If a Request is made on behalf of another person, the Requester must submit proof of the capacity in which the Requester is making the request to the satisfaction of the Information Officer.
- 9.7. If a Request for access to information has been granted, Ascension' response will include:
 - 9.7.1. an indication of the access fee that should be paid upon gaining access (if any);
 - 9.7.2. an indication of the form in which the access will be granted; and
 - 9.7.3. a notice that you may lodge an application with the court against the access fee to be paid or the form of the access, including guidance on the procedure for lodging the application.
- 9.8. If a Request for access to information has not been granted, Ascension' response will include:
 - 9.8.1. adequate reasons for the refusal; and
 - 9.8.2. notice that you may lodge an application with the court against the extension and the procedure including the period, for lodging the application. For details on the procedure, please refer to Chapter 2 of Part 4 PAIA.
- 9.9. Assuming your Request of access is granted, you will be able to gain access to the requested Records as soon as is reasonably possible and once the access fee has been paid.
- 9.10. Access will be granted to a record if the following criteria are fulfilled:
 - 9.10.1. the record is required for the exercise or protection of any right;
 - 9.10.2. the Requestor complies with the procedural requirements in PAIA relating to a Request; and
 - 9.10.3. access to the record is not refused in terms of any ground for refusal as contemplated in Chapter 4 of Part 3 of PAIA.

10. Denial for a request to access information

- 10.1. A Request for access to information may be refused and/denied under limited circumstances, including:
- 10.1.1. The main grounds for Ascension to refuse a request for information relates to the:
- 10.1.1.1. mandatory protection of the privacy of a third party who is a natural person or a deceased person (section 63) or a juristic person, as included in POPIA, which would involve the unreasonable disclosure of personal information of that natural or juristic person;
 - 10.1.1.2. mandatory protection of personal information and for disclosure of any personal information to, in addition to any other legislative, regulatory or contractual agreements, to comply with the provisions of POPIA;
 - 10.1.1.3. mandatory protection of the commercial information of a third party (section 64 of PAIA) if the record contains:
 - 10.1.1.3.1. trade secrets of the third party;
 - 10.1.1.3.2. financial, commercial, scientific or technical information which disclosure could likely cause harm to the financial or commercial interests of that third party; or
 - 10.1.1.3.3. information disclosed in confidence by a third party to Ascension, if the disclosure could put that third party at a disadvantage in negotiations or commercial competition;
 - 10.1.1.4. mandatory protection of confidential information of third parties (section 65 of PAIA) if it is protected in terms of any agreement;
 - 10.1.1.5. mandatory protection of the safety of individuals and the protection of property (section 66 of PAIA);
 - 10.1.1.6. mandatory protection of records which would be regarded as privileged in legal proceedings (section 67 of PAIA);
 - 10.1.1.7. the commercial activities (section 68 of PAIA) of a private body, such as Ascension, which may include:
 - 10.1.1.7.1. trade secrets of the Ascension;
 - 10.1.1.7.2. financial, commercial, scientific or technical information which disclosure could likely cause harm to the financial or commercial interests of Ascension;
 - 10.1.1.7.3. information which, if disclosed could put Ascension at a disadvantage in negotiations or commercial competition;
 - 10.1.1.7.4. a computer program which is owned by Ascension, and which is protected by copyright; or
 - 10.1.1.7.5. the research information (section 69 of PAIA) of Ascension or a third party, if its disclosure would disclose the identity of Ascension, the researcher or the subject matter of the research and would place the research at a serious disadvantage; or
 - 10.1.1.7.6. requests for information that are clearly frivolous or vexatious, or which involve an unreasonable diversion of resources shall be refused.
- 10.1.2. All requests for information will be assessed on their own merits and in accordance with the applicable legal principles and legislation.
- 10.1.3. If a requested record cannot be found or if the record does not exist, the Information Officer shall, by way of an affidavit or affirmation, notify the Requester that it is not possible to give access to the requested record. Such a notice will be regarded as a decision to refuse a request for access to the record concerned for the purpose of the PAIA Act. If the record should later be found, the Requester shall be given access to the record in the manner stipulated by the Requester in the prescribed form, unless the Information Officer refuses access to such record.

11. Fees

- 11.1. PAIA provides for 2 (two) types of fees, namely:
- 11.1.1. a request fee, which is a form of administration fee to be paid by all Requesters except personal requesters, before the request is considered and is not refundable; and
 - 11.1.2. an access fee, which is paid by all Requesters in the event that a request for access is granted. This fee is inclusive of costs involved by the private body in obtaining and preparing a record for delivery to the Requester.
- 11.2. When the request is received by the Information Officer, such officer shall by notice require the Requester, other than a personal requester, to pay the prescribed request fee, before further processing of the request (section 54(1) of the PAIA Act).
- 11.3. If the search for the record has been made and the preparation of the record for disclosure, including arrangement to make it available in the requested form, requires more than the hours prescribed in the regulations for this purpose, the Information Officer shall notify the Requester to pay as a deposit the prescribed portion of the access fee which would be payable if the request is granted.
- 11.4. The Information Officer shall withhold a record until the Requester has paid the fees as indicated below.
- 11.5. A Requester whose request for access to a record has been granted, must pay an access fee that is calculated to include, where applicable, the request fee, the process fee for reproduction and for search and preparation, and for any time reasonably required in excess of the prescribed hours to search for and prepare the record for disclosure including making arrangements to make it available in the request form.
- 11.6. If a deposit has been paid in respect of a request for access, which is refused, then the Information Officer concerned must repay the deposit to the Requester.
- 11.7. Reproduction Fee
- 11.7.1. Where Ascension has voluntarily provided the Minister with a list of categories of records that will automatically be made available to any person requesting access thereto, the only charge that may be levied for obtaining such records, will be a fee for reproduction of the record in question, which will be as follows:

Reproduction of Information Fees	Fees to be Charged

11.8. Request Fees

11.8.1. Where a Requester submits a request for access to information held by an institution on a person other than the Requester himself/herself, a request fee in the amount of R50,00 is payable up-front before the institution will further process the request received.

11.9. Access Fees

11.9.1. An access fee is payable in all instances where a request for access to information is granted, except in those instances where payment of an access fee is specially excluded in terms of the PAIA Act or an exclusion is determined by the Minister in terms of section 54(8) of the PAIA Act. The applicable access fees which will be payable are:

11.10. Deposits

11.10.1. Where Ascension receives a request for access to information held on a person other than the Requester himself/herself and the Information Officer upon receipt of the request is of the opinion that the preparation of the required record of disclosure will take more than 6 (six) hours, a deposit is payable by the Requester.

11.10.2. The amount of the deposit is equal to 1/3 (one third) of the amount of the applicable access fee.

11.11. Collection Fees

11.11.1. The initial "request fee" of R50,00 should be deposited into the bank account nominated by Ascension and a copy of the deposit slip, application form and other correspondence / documents, forwarded to the Information Officer via fax/ email.

11.11.2. All fees are subject to change as allowed for in PAIA and as a consequence such escalations may not always be immediately available at the time of the request being made.

11.11.3. Requesters shall be informed of any changes in the fees prior to making a payment.

12. Exemptions from paying fees

12.1. The following persons are exempted from paying access fees in terms of PAIA:

12.1.1. a single person whose annual income does not exceed R14,712.00; or 12.1.2. married persons or a person and his/her life partner whose annual income does not exceed R27,192.00.

12.2. Please take note of the following differences when making an application for access to information to a Public Body and a Private Body:

	PUBLIC BODY	PRIVATE BODY
Application form to use	"Form A"	"Form C"
Request fee payable	R35.00	R50.00
Remedy available	Internal appeal to the relevant authority	Application to Magistrates' Court

(when not satisfied with the decision (including “deemed refusal”) of the Information Officer or Deputy Information Officer	(e.g. minister, MEC or Mayor) - use “Form B” - no fee payable	(there is no internal appeal)
Remedy available (only when not satisfied with the outcome of the internal appeal)	Application to the Magistrates’ Court

13. Request for access to information about third parties

- 13.1. If you request access to a record that contains information about a third party, Ascension is obliged to attempt to contact this third party to inform them of the request and to give them an opportunity to respond by either consenting to the access or by providing reasons why the access should be denied.
- 13.2. In the event that the third party furnishes reasons for the support or denial of access, the Information Officer will consider these reasons in determining whether access should be granted.
- 13.3. You may appeal against a refusal of access by the Information Officer. Please refer to paragraph 12.2 above and Part 4 of PAIA for further details on the appeal process.

14. Remedies available when Ascension refuses a request

14.1. Internal Remedies

- 14.1.1. Ascension does not have internal appeal procedures. The decision made by the Information Officer is final.
- 14.1.2. Requesters will have to exercise such external remedies at their disposal if the request for information is refused and the Requestor is not satisfied with the answer supplied by the Information Officer.

14.2. External Remedies

- 14.2.1. A Requestor that is dissatisfied with the Information Officer's refusal to disclose information, may within 30 (thirty) days of notification of the decision, may apply to a Court for relief.
- 14.2.2. For purposes of PAIA, the Courts that have jurisdiction over these applications are the Constitutional Court, the High Court or another court of similar status and a Magistrate's Court designated by the Minister of Justice and Constitutional Development and which is presided over by a designated Magistrate.

15. Access to records held by Ascension

15.1. Prerequisites for Access by Personal/Other Requester

- 15.1.1. Records held by Ascension may be accessed by requests only once the prerequisite requirements for access have been met.
- 15.1.2. A Requester is any person making a request for access to a record of Ascension.
- 15.1.3. There are 2 (two) types of requesters:
 - 15.1.3.1. Personal Requester:
 - 15.1.3.1.1. A personal requester is a requester who is seeking access to a record containing personal information about the Requester.
 - 15.1.3.1.2. Ascension will voluntarily provide the requested information, or give access to any record with regard to the requester's personal information. The prescribed fee for reproduction of the information requested will be charged.
 - 15.1.3.2. Other Requester
 - 15.1.3.2.1. This Requester (other than a personal requester) is entitled to request access to information on third parties.
 - 15.1.3.2.2. In considering such a request, Ascension will adhere to the provisions of PAIA. Section 71 of PAIA requires that the Information Officer take all reasonable steps to inform a third party to whom the requested record relates of the request, informing him/her that he/she may make a written or oral representation to the Information Officer why the request should be refused or, where required, give written consent for the disclosure of the Information.
- 15.2. Ascension is not obliged to voluntarily grant access to such records. The Requester must fulfil the prerequisite requirements, in accordance with the requirements of the PAIA Act and as stipulated in Chapter 5: Part 3, including the payment of a request and access fee.

16. Protection of personal information that is processed Ascension

- 16.1. POPIA requires Ascension to inform their clients as to the manner in which their Personal Information is used, disclosed and destroyed.
- 16.2. Chapter 3 of POPIA provides for the minimum Conditions for Lawful Processing of Personal Information by a Responsible Party. These conditions may not be derogated from unless specific exclusions apply as outlined in POPIA.
- 16.3. In this clause 16 words and phrases shall have the meanings assigned to them as in POPIA.
- 16.4. Ascension needs Personal Information relating to both individual and juristic persons in order to carry out its business and organisational functions. The manner in which this information is Processed and the purpose for which it is Processed is determined by Ascension. Ascension is accordingly a Responsible Party for the purposes of POPIA and will ensure that the Personal Information of a Data Subject:
 - 16.4.1. is processed lawfully, fairly and transparently. This includes the provision of appropriate information to Data Subjects when their data is collected by Ascension, in the form of privacy or data collection notices. Ascension must also have a legal basis (for example, consent) to process Personal Information;
 - 16.4.2. is processed only for the purposes for which it was collected;
 - 16.4.3. will not be processed for a secondary purpose unless that processing is compatible with the original purpose.

- 16.4.4. is adequate, relevant and not excessive for the purposes for which it was collected;
- 16.4.5. is accurate and kept up to date;
- 16.4.6. will not be kept for longer than necessary;
- 16.4.7. is processed in accordance with integrity and confidentiality principles. This includes physical and organisational measures to ensure that Personal Information, in both physical and electronic form, are subject to an appropriate level of security when stored, used and communicated by Ascension, in order to protect against access and acquisition by unauthorised persons and accidental loss, destruction or damage;
- 16.4.8. is processed in accordance with the rights of Data Subjects, where applicable. Data Subjects have the right to:
 - 16.4.8.1. be notified that their Personal Information is being collected by Ascension. The Data Subject also has the right to be notified in the event of a data breach;
 - 16.4.8.2. know whether Ascension holds Personal Information about them, and to access that information. Any request for information must be handled in accordance with the provisions of this PAIA Manual;
 - 16.4.8.3. request the correction or deletion of inaccurate, irrelevant, excessive, out of date, incomplete, misleading or unlawfully obtained personal information;
 - 16.4.8.4. object to Ascension' use of their Personal Information and request the deletion of such Personal Information (deletion would be subject to Ascension' record keeping requirements);
 - 16.4.8.5. object to the processing of Personal Information for purposes of direct marketing by means of unsolicited electronic communications; and
 - 16.4.8.6. complain to the Information Regulator regarding an alleged infringement of any of the rights protected under POPIA and to institute civil proceedings regarding the alleged non-compliance with the protection of his, her or its personal information.

16.5. Purpose of the Processing of Personal Information by Ascension

- 16.5.1. As outlined above, Personal Information may only be processed for a specific purpose. The purposes for which Ascension processes or will process Personal Information is to:
 - 16.5.1.1. comply with lawful obligations, including all applicable labour, tax and financial legislation (including compliance with any South African Reserve Bank and Johannesburg Stock Exchange requirements) such as the Financial Advisory And Intermediary Services Act, 37 of 2002 (FAIS), the Financial Intelligence Centre Act 38 of 2001 (FICA), the National Credit Act, 34 of 2005 (NCA) and B-BBEE laws;
