

SHHH...

Task one: Two zabr will always come with an Alif or Yaa which is not read, i.e: it is silent.

This is similar to the 'silent letters' used in English. For example, the word 'white' is pronounced as 'wite' so the h is silent.

However, even though this 'h' is not read, it is still written.

Circle the silent letters in the following examples:

وَا

هَّا

نَّا

فَّا

بَّا

گَّا

لَّا

دِّي

ذَّا

مَّا

وَلَدًا

أَحَدًا

ثَمِنًا

أَثَرًا

رَشَدًا

لُزُومًا

رَأَيْبًا

نُورًا

جَنَفًا

أَبَدًا
