

Janecia Rolland

Equity Trainer

Embracing Culture – Cultivating Competence

Janecia Rolland is a Marriage and Family Therapist/Professional Clinical Counseling Trainee. Janecia received her Bachelor's Degree in Psychology and minor in Sociology from California State University, San Bernardino, and will complete her M.A. in Marriage and Family therapy from Brandman University. She believes in providing a non-bias, non judgement, safe space to grow.

Janecia's focus is to partner with her clients and together, address issues and/or concerns in life. She enjoys working with individuals, couples, teens and young adults with addressing issues such as: spiritual concerns, anxiety, depression, relationship challenges, communication, parenting challenges, setting healthy boundaries, healing, personal growth, decision making and overall life transitions.