APRIL IS CREDIT UNION YOUTH MONTH!!!

Today's young people need financial guidance from a trusted source in order to positively shape their financial futures. They need to learn the importance of savings, using and building credit, and managing their money. PTCCU recognizes and understands the financial needs of our youth and works diligently to reach out to them in fun and meaningful ways. Celebrated every April, Youth Month is a dedicated effort among Credit Unions to recognize their young members and promote financial education. At PTCCU, we celebrate the importance of financial know-how with kid's every day, but put the emphasis on youth savings accounts during this Month. Come help us celebrate on April 24TH for refreshments and prizes for our youth.

PTCCU HOSTS ANNUAL MEETING & RE-ELECTS BOARD OFFICERS

PTCCU hosted its annual meeting Saturday, January 25th, 2020 at the Elks Lodge in Grangeville and celebrated its 64th anniversary since its inception in 1956. Elected to serve two-year terms were: Incumbent Director Dave Bodine, Jerry Zumalt, Janis Lance and Rachel Young. Completing their 2nd half of their two-year term are Abbie Hudson, Melanie Hawkins and Beth Keeler. Board elections were held and re-elected for the 2020 through 2021 two-year term, were Dave Bodine-Chairman, Rachel Young-Vice Chair, and Janis Lance Secretary-Treasurer. Supervisory committee members appointed for an additional 1-year term are co-chairman Carol Kinzer and Donna Forsman, and members Chris Koehler, and Margaret Chambliss. Next year’s annual meeting will be held on Saturday January 30th, 2021. Mark your calendars, and plan to join us next year.

Sincerely
Dan Goehring, CEO

PTCCU UPGRADES BILL PAY SOFTWARE TO INCLUDE PORTAL PAY

On February 29th, PTCCU installed new bill-pay software to our on-line banking service. The Portal Pay feature allows members to securely move funds from accounts at different financial institutions to make loan payments online, all behind a single sign on.
