RE: REQUEST FOR FREE CREDIT REPORT

To Whom It May Concern:

My credit application was recently denied, and according to the attached letter that I received less than sixty days ago from the company that denied me credit, your credit bureau issued the report that was used to determine my credit evaluation.

Section 609 [15 USC 1681g ] of the Fair Credit Reporting Act of 1970 provides that your credit bureau should send me all information on file that led to my credit application being denied. According to the provisions of Section 612 (b) [15 USC 1681j (b)], there should be no charge for this information.

Please send my credit report to the address below. The attached letter details additional information identifying my account.

If you have any questions or need additional information, please contact me at address noted below.

Thank you.

RE: DELETIONS TO CREDIT REPORT

To Whom It May Concern:

I received a copy of my credit report and am disputing some items that need to be deleted. I have highlighted and numbered these disputed items on the attached copy. The reasons why these items should be deleted are indicated below:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Item #</th>
<th>Reason for Deletion</th>
</tr>
</thead>

According to the provisions of the Fair Credit Reporting Act 611(a) [15 USC 1681i(a)], these disputed items must be reinvestigated or deleted from my credit record within 30 days. During the investigation period, these items must be removed from my credit report as the mere reporting of items prior to debt validation constitutes collection activity. I am also requesting the names, addresses and telephone numbers of individuals you contacted during your investigation.

Please notify me that the above items have been deleted pursuant to 611 (a)(6) [15 USC, 1681j (a) (6)]. I am also requesting an updated copy of my credit report, which should be sent to the address listed below. According to the provisions of 612 [15 USC, 1681j], there should be no charge for this report.

If you have any questions or need additional information, please contact me at address noted below.

Thank you.

RE: FAILURE TO RESPOND TO DELETION/CORRECTION LETTER

To Whom It May Concern:

On [insert date of first letter], I sent a letter requesting that you reinvestigate or delete disputed items from my credit report as well as place temporarily remove these items from my report during the investigation period. As of this date, you have failed to respond to my request. A copy of my original letter is attached for your review.

The law stipulates that you must investigate within 30 days of receiving my letter and respond within 5 days of completing your investigation. You have not followed the stipulations of the law.

I may suffer damages because I need to rely on an accurate and complete statement of my credit record and demand that you remove the disputed items from my report immediately as you failed to comply with the law. Otherwise, I will contact the Federal Trade Commission and advise them of your apparent disregard for consumer protection laws.

If you have any questions or need additional information, please contact me at the address noted below.

Thank you.

RE: FRIVOLOUS LETTER REJECTION

To Whom It May Concern:

I am in receipt of your letter stating that my dispute of items in my credit report was "irrelevant and frivolous." I am upset that your credit reporting agency would try such a blatant stall tactic. I am demanding that you reinvestigate my credit file under the Fair Credit Reporting Act Section 611 [15 USC 1681I]. You have no way to ascertain the legitimacy of my action without investigating the items in question.

Enclosed is a copy of my original letter and credit report with the disputed items highlighted. Additional stall tactics on the part of your organization will be reported to the Federal Trade Commission.

If you have any questions, please contact me at the address listed below.

Thank you.

RE: REDUCED-PAYMENT REQUEST FOR ACCOUNT

Dear [name]:

I am currently experiencing financial difficulties because [reason].

I have examined my finances and developed a careful budget that includes payment to each creditor.

In order to provide for my necessary expenses, I am requesting that each creditor accept a reduced payment until my situation improves with the full understanding that the reduced payment is temporary. In place of my regular payment of [amount], I am requesting that you accept payment of [amount] each month.

I am making every effort to correct my financial situation and expect things to be resolved as of [date]. Until I resume my regular repayments, I will not incur any new debt obligation.

Upon your approval, I will immediately remit my first reduced payment.

Thank you for your understanding and cooperation during this difficult time.

If you have any questions or need additional information, please contact me at address listed above.

Sincerely,

Bruce Smith

RE: REQUEST FOR CEASING PHONE CALLS

Dear [name]:

I have been receiving telephone calls from you concerning my account #. As you have been informed repeatedly, I cannot pay the bill at this time.

Under 15 USCA 1692 c of the Fair Debt Collection Practices Act, this is my formal notice for you to cease all telephone calls except for those permitted by federal law. I am not cutting off communication with your company but rather reduce all communication to writing.

Sincerely,

Bruce Smith

RE: PROPOSAL TO SETTLE ACCOUNT

Dear [name]:

Based on our recent discussions, you are aware that I am in financial difficulties because of [reason] and am not currently able to make payments on my account.

My income barely covers my living expenses, and I have no assets to sell in order to pay you or my other creditors.

I am committed to paying this debt and am willing to offer a settlement of $____ as payment in full.

Additionally, I ask that you report this account as “paid in full” and “paid as agreed” all major credit reporting agencies. I know you have discretion to report as you deem appropriate so long as consistent with federal law. If you agree to these conditions, please notify me in writing and I will immediately facilitate payment.

If you have any questions, please contact me at the address listed above.

Thank you.
