

Spiritual Whorefare: The Truth About Soul Ties

We are who we sleep with. What an astounding truth. But, with the new way in which intercourse is viewed, it would be hard to convince a teenager or young adult to refrain from premarital sex. It's even more difficult to convince them of the spiritual aspect of it all. You see, in school, we are taught to view the natural, but the spiritual nature is brushed off like some sort of folklore, simply because the world is now being taught to lean to science for facts and not to God for truth. When one speaks of the Word, they are, in many cases, looked upon as 'slightly touched' or 'weird.' But, the truth is, this behavior is nothing new to the world. Proof of that is in the book of Genesis, when the people laughed at, scoffed and mocked Noah when he warned of an impending flood that would destroy every living thing on the earth.

But, what about that life force that we know as 'fallen angels' or demons? Are they real? Or are they just another folklore, written to amuse us? Well, if you know the truth and you study your bible, you would know that demons are very much so real. And they come with different ranks, assignments and behaviors. And while the debate continues: Can a Christian have a demon? The answer has always been present in the Word of God. But, no one wants to see it. Everyone wants to express what they believe, but where is the scriptural backing? So, now, you will not only understand what spiritual whorefare is, but how it is spread and how it can be prohibited from invading you or your family.

First question: Can a Christian be possessed by a demonic spirit? We know of the accounts of both Saul and Judas Iscariot who were both believers, having been visited by the devil. The scriptures tell us that the devil entered Judas and that a demonic spirit would torment Saul, however, there are no more related scriptures to this topic. We also know that Satan was allowed to attack Job's flesh, but was not allowed to touch his life. So, just what is the truth?

Truth: Humans come in three parts: Body, spirit and soul. When we are born again, we are inhabited by the Holy Spirit, therefore, it is true that a demon can not override God, however, that's just our spirit portion. And our spirit belongs to God...never once in the bible will you find talks of the spirit going to hell, instead, the bible speaks of the soul in hell. But, just what is the soul of a man? "And the Lord God formed man of the dust of the ground, and breathed into his nostrils the breath of life; and man became a living soul." (Genesis 2:7) Living soul? "For the life of the flesh is in the blood: and I have given it to you upon the alter to make atonement for your souls: for it is the blood that make atonement for soul" (Leviticus 17:11) Now, of course, our blood could not save us because of our sin nature, which is why, before Jesus, bulls, rams and goats had to be sacrificed and their blood was used to make atonement. Now that our Savior has redeemed us, we only need believe that Jesus Christ is the Son of God and that He came in the flesh, died and was resurrected. That is our salvation....that is our life...it is within His Blood. Why? Our soul is comprised of our mind, which we know biblically speaking, to be our hearts and our soul is comprised of our bodies. Therefore, when God formed us, we were nothing more than just a formation of dust, a dead soul but once He breathed the breath of life into us, we became a living soul. That means, God gave us our lives in our blood. Without the blood, the body cannot survive and without the body, the blood has no natural use. Together, they make our soul. Remember the story of Cain and Abel? Cain murdered his brother Abel and what was God's remark? "And He said, What hast thou done? The voice of thy brother's blood crieth unto ME from the ground." (Genesis 4:10) His blood cried out...not his body. So, his life was found in his blood, just as ours.

So now to the subject at hand. What is spiritual whoremonging? First, let us review some scriptures that will also help give you a better understanding.

1 Corinthians 6:17: But he that is joined unto the Lord is one spirit.

Genesis 2:24: Therefore shall a man leave his father and his mother, and shall cleave unto his wife: and they shall be one flesh.

Therefore, when we accept Jesus Christ as our Lord and Savior, we are one spirit with Him, but when we take spouses, we become one flesh with them.

Now, to the soul ties.....There is one lie that has circulated for centuries upon the face of the earth and that lie is: one has to have a marriage ceremony to be married. In my bible, your bible and the bible that your ministers are using, there is never a story where marriage vows were exchanged. Instead, people came together to celebrate the coming together, or marriage. The coming together came once they lie down together. Why is that? Because it is then that the life of that man is transferred into that woman. How so? Your life is in your blood. What is found in semen? Blood cells of course. Therefore, they became one and she became his wife. That is a coming together that no man could separate, only God. But, I know what a lot of you are saying. Well, what if I wear a condom?

Answer: Condoms are porous and the pores are smaller than sperm cells, therefore sperm cannot pass through it, however, sperm and semen consists of white blood cells. So, blood cells can and do pass through the pores of condoms because blood cells are smaller than sperm cells. Therefore, when you arise from your fornication, greet your new husband or wife, because in God's eyes, the two have become one.

Even much so when you lie down with a whoremonger. While she may be the wife of many men, she is still a soul...a meeting ground where the souls of many men meet and become one. 1 Corinthians 6:16 reads, "What? Know ye not that he which is joined to an harlot is one body? For two, saith He, shall be one flesh." So, when a man lies down with a woman, he leaves a part of himself with her.

Many ask: Well, if she's my wife after I've laid down with her or he's my husband once I've laid down with him, that means it's okay that I do it the second time, since now, we are already married. Untrue. Marriage is an institution of God...something similar to His relationship with us. Therefore, God has to be the third cord in that union. And it is then that it is a godly union. That only means, the man has to be a believer or the woman has to be a believer before the union is inseparable. Now, if one is not a believer, the believer is still under the commandments of God...meaning they cannot divorce their mate unless the unbeliever wants to do so. "For the unbelieving husband is sanctified by the wife, and the unbelieving wife is sanctified by the husband: else were your children unclean, but now they are holy. But, if the unbelieving depart, let him depart." (1 Corinthians 7:14-15) What does this mean? If the both of you are married and you (both) have done things in order: salvation and then marriage, and your spouse wants a divorce or you want a divorce, it cannot be done unless she (the wife) commits adultery. Oh my, what a truth that will burn some bed-sheets! Why just her? When a man takes a wife, she is his, according to the bible. Even in the old testament, a woman could not divorce her husband, but he had to divorce her and he could only do so if he found her to be unclean...meaning, she'd had intercourse while with him or before him...either way, he was to be the only man that she'd lain with. Evidence: Deuteronomy 24:1, "When a man hath taken a wife, and married her, and it come to pass that she find no favour in his eyes, BECAUSE HE HATH FOUND SOME UNCLEANNESS IN HER: then let him write her a bill of divorcement, and give it in her hand, and send her out of his house." Why do you think that, in those times, when a woman was caught in adultery, she was to be stoned? She was defiled. She bore the souls of both men. And if a man had slept with another man's wife, he too, was to be put to death. Leviticus 20:10 bears witness: And the man that committeth adultery, with another man's wife, even he that committeth adultery with his neighbor's wife, the adulterer and the adulteress shall surely be put to death." However, saints, if a married man laid with a woman, that was unmarried or divorced, she too, was his wife...or concubine...meaning, she had no rights as the wife, only to bear sons and daughters to him because she bore his soul. But, his inheritance went to his first wife and his children with her. She, the concubine, was then his...she could not lay with another man and if she did, she was to be put to death because she was defiled. A son could only inherit his dad's concubines when his dad passed away and if he did so while his dad was still alive, he was to be put to death. What does this mean? Just as we cannot serve or belong to two gods, a woman should not bear the souls of more than one man and as far as men of biblical times having had multiple wives, never in the bible was it said that God permitted this. As a matter of truth, in the story of Abraham and Sarah, when Sarah, Abraham's wife, gave Hagar to Abraham to wife, Hagar had no rights other than that of a slave woman and her son was not to have an equal inheritance with Hagar's son. This was made plainly evident in Genesis 21:10, "Wherefore she (Sarah) said unto Abraham, Cast out this bondwoman (Hagar) and her son: for the son of this bondwoman shall not be heir with my son, even with Isaac." Now, the scriptures go on to tell us that God told Abraham to hearken (listen) to his wife. Abraham didn't want to initially because Ishmael, too was his son. But, God commanded Abraham to listen to Sarah because Sarah, by law, was his wife and Hagar, was a concubine (a wife not grafted in by covenant, but through sexual relations.) God was not the glue in the union between Abraham and Hagar...Hagar was given to Abraham by his wife...not God. Therefore, he (Abraham) could send her away and his lawful wife (Sarah) did have say in the matter.

Soul ties can be established through multiple routes, the strongest being through sexual relations since blood (life) is transferred between the two. That is why God warns us in 1 Corinthians 6:18, "Flee fornication. Every sin that a man doeth is without the body, but he that committeth fornication sinneth against his own body.” So now, to the lesson:

For every person you lay down with, you collect another soul. That is why it is called a soul tie because you become one with whomever you mix your being with. Think of it this way...if I took the water from the Atlantic Ocean and poured it into the Pacific Ocean, could you separate it and say which was which? Such is the same with fornication. When we pour our life into the lives of others and allow them to pour their soul into us, we become one and man cannot separate this union. No words, papers or judgments can separate this union. Only God can. “Wherefore they are no more twain, but one flesh. What therefore God hath joined together, let no man put asunder.” (Matthew 19:6) There is no hands that strong enough to pull God's hands apart and there is no word that can override God's Word. As a result, no man can sever a soul tie from you, only God can...no man can grant you a divorce, only God can...no restraining order can rearrange God's order. But, how are they one flesh? Because God spoke it, it is so. Just as we are one spirit with God and no devil can come between that. What did Paul instruct the people to do about the reported issue of men fornicating with their father's wives, which he said this thing wasn't even known amongst the Gentiles (sinners)? He said that the accused should be vanished in the presence of the people. “It is reported commonly that there is fornication among you, and such fornication as is not so much as named among the Gentiles, that one should have his father's wife. And ye are puffed up, and have not rather mourned, that he that hath done this deed might be taken away from among you. For I verily, as absent in body, but present in spirit, have judged already, as though I were present, concerning him that hath so done this deed, In the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, when ye are gathered together, and my spirit, with the power of our Lord Jesus Christ. To deliver such an one unto Satan for the destruction of the flesh, that the spirit may be saved in the day of the Lord Jesus.” (1 Corinthians 5:1-5) Why so? Together, in unity, Satan cannot overcome a people, however, if he can slither into one, who is amongst the people, through their flesh, he can, like a disease contaminate more and more, through association and sexual relations. How? Because soul ties are established through blood ties (family and sexual relations) and association. So, the community as a whole, was to deliver that soul to Satan, rather than have Satan delivered to them. And because he (Satan) could not destroy the spirit, he could destroy the flesh. Research the case of Job. Because of who Job was, Satan could not take his life, but only attack his flesh. Meaning, Satan could not possess Job internally, he could only use external routes to attack him.

Now, let's discuss the whole aspect of you lying down with Bob, who laid down with Beth, who laid down with Michael, who laid down with Seth. Just how many soul ties are established here? One. Why? Because the two shall become one flesh. Even though Bob now has a soul tie with Seth, who slept with Michael and so on, there is one common tie amongst them. So, what happens when a soul tie is present? The wife longs for the husband and the husband is jealous about his wife. Therefore, let's look at this scenario:

Meagan is married to Mark. Mark goes and sleeps with Melissa, who, in her life has slept with Billy, Bob and Ted. Which means, Melissa is one with Billy, Bob and Ted. Now, when Mark joins the bunch, he becomes one with Melissa, Billy, Bob and Ted. Why? Because Melissa cannot be separated from her previous husbands by man. This union can only be severed by God. Now, Mark goes home and sleeps with his wife. Now, Meagan is one with Mark and everyone that he is one with.

So, why do Satan entice men and women into lying down with multiple partners? When the spirit of perversion has ravished the soul of a man or woman, it has that person by the flesh. But, we know that Satan is not happy with one person...he wants as many souls as he can acquire. However, when a man is saved, Satan cannot touch his spirit, so what is left? His flesh. Again, that is why Paul commanded the people to deliver such a one to Satan for the destruction of his flesh, so that his soul could be saved. Satan desires to not only cause man to fall into sin, but he also desires to destroy the temple of the SPIRIT, since he cannot destroy the SPIRIT. Satan knows that adulterers and fornicators cannot enter heaven...yes, even the believers! "So then because thou art lukewarm, and neither hot nor cold, I will spue thee out of my mouth." (Revelation 3:16) 2 Peter 2:20-21 also confirms this, "If they have escaped the corruption of the world by knowing our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ and are again entangled in it and overcome, they are worse off at the end than they were at the beginning. It would have been better for them not to have known the way of righteousness, than to have known it and then to turn their backs on the sacred command that was passed on to them." If you are yet still confused, then Hebrews 6:4 should make it plain for you, "For it is impossible for those who were once enlightened, and have tasted of the heavenly gift, and were made partakers of the Holy Ghost, and have tasted the good word of God, and the powers of the world to come, if they shall fall away, to renew them again unto repentance; seeing they crucify to themselves the Son of God afresh, and put him to an open shame. For the earth which drinketh in the rain that cometh oft upon it, and bringeth forth herbs meet for them by whom it is dressed, receiveth blessing from God: But that which beareth thorns and briers is rejected, and is nigh unto cursing; whose end is to be burned." (Hebrews 6:4-8) But, that's another topic.

The truth is, we are to honor God with all that we are: body, spirit and soul. You cannot serve two masters, and in choosing to do so, you have chosen Satan as your master. You belong to whomever or whatever you serve. And if what or whom you serve is corruptible and destructible, then you are the same. We know that hell was created for Satan and his angels. Notice the word 'his,' meaning, they belong to him. You say, "Well, I belong to Jesus!" Well, that very may well be true, but are you faithful to him. A wife can belong to her husband, but that does not automatically render her faithful. Once she lies down with another man, she is defiled with the soul of that man. The same renders you guilty. Once you lie down with the devil, you are defiled...which is why the Blood of Jesus was and is needed for your salvation. But, God not only wants your mind, He wants your body as well. You as a whole should belong to Him, otherwise, you have chosen your god. You have to realize that every time you lie down with a woman or man, whatever demonic spirit has contaminated their soul is now one with you. This is why those that are polluted with the spirit of perversion have an insatiable appetite to sleep with this and that person. Because the spirit attached to them hungers for flesh. This is why, if your spouse left you to be with another person, you are to throw your hands in the air, surrendering the situation to God and praising Him that you are no longer bound by that person. Because that demonic spirit cannot and will not leave them until they renounce it and give themselves wholly to God. Meaning: Even without you, it is still there!!! Meaning: They cannot and will not be faithful to even the new person in their life because that spirit in them simply wanted to create another soul tie. Their flesh called for that person, but that demonic spirit that is within that flesh has the remote to turn them on and off. This is why you are called, in Romans 12:1, "I beseech you therefore brethren, that ye present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service." What does this tell you? In fornication, you are unacceptable to God. In adultery, God cannot accept you. Even in the act of masturbation, you are unacceptable. Why? You are spilling your life over a plastic, man made object, when Onan, son of Judah fell dead because God was not pleased with his decision to spill his seed on the ground. So, do you think He's pleased with you spilling it on plastic or metal? God gave you the life that is in your blood. If He does not want a sword, or a bullet, or anything to pierce you and cause your blood to fall to the ground, then it is safe to say that He does not want anything to pierce you or be pierced by you. Plus, He warns us in Matthews 5:28, "But I say unto you, That whosoever looketh on a woman to lust after her hath committed adultery with her already in his heart."

While we may go into warfare, binding up demons and sending them to the pit, be advised that demons are going into whorefare, binding up souls and reserving them for the pit. Your pornography? Gateway...flesh enticer...a way for Satan to infect your flesh with insatiable desires that burn to the point where your mind begins to compromise with your flesh. Women half dressed, walking about or coming into your churches? Bait. You are to cast down evil imagination, so do not allow your eyes to entertain your heart. Instead, turn your head and your heart and keep your eyes on your God. Don't lust after her...she is simply bait...just like the earthworm, once she is consumed, she is no more because her Satanic purpose has been served. Sure, she may live for a long time, bringing down many of God's elect, however, she is simply an instrument of the evil one and as such, her end is near, should she not repent and turn from those ways. If she walks into your church, have her covered immediately by your church's ministry team or sent to the prayer room. If Brother Barks has been praying to be delivered from the demon of perversion, and feels safe in church...all of a sudden, a rear end halfway uncovered or it is snugly fitting in that dress and it passes him, then his battle just got tougher. If one can't come into the sanctuary to escape the devil, where can he go? If that's all the clothing she has, okay, but either way, cover her and if you can, and she so desires to serve the Lord, as you can see, then come together and help her get some appropriate attire.

The key is: keep yourselves holy for God. If you want to be accepted by God, you have to reject anything that He abhors. Satan cannot borrow God's vehicle because he would only crash it.
