

10 Guideposts for Living Wholeheartedly

Navigating Life with Courage, Compassion and Connection

*A Daring Way™ workshop based on the work of Brené Brown
facilitated by Anita Anand, PCC, CDWF, CDTLF*

Is this often your inner voice?

- What will people think if I fail or give up?
- When will I stop feeling the need to prove myself to others?
- Do I really want to be breathing and flat-lining at the same time?
- Change is uncomfortable. How do I connect with my worthiness without the hardship of change?

Virtual
Program

However afraid we are of change, the question we must ultimately answer is this: What's the greater risk? Letting go of what people think or letting go of who I am?

The Ten Guideposts for Wholehearted Living is the journey from feeling fearful, judgmental and alone, to cultivating the gifts of courage, compassion, and connection. This work is about learning to love our imperfections, reconnecting to our worthiness, and becoming firmly grounded in a deep sense of love and belonging. It's about saying, "Enough is enough, because I am enough!"

Starting October 2020 through the next 10 months, we will be finding our way to these Guideposts together. Cultivating:

1. Authenticity ~ Letting go of what people think
2. Self-compassion ~ Letting go of perfectionism
3. A resilient spirit ~ Letting go of numbing & powerlessness
4. Gratitude & joy ~ Letting go of scarcity & fear of the dark
5. Intuition & trusting faith ~ Letting go of need for certainty
6. Creativity ~ Letting go of comparison
7. Play & rest ~ Letting go of exhaustion as a status symbol & productivity as self-worth
8. Calm & stillness ~ Letting go of anxiety as a lifestyle
9. Meaningful work ~ Letting go of self-doubt & 'supposed to'
10. Laughter, song & dance ~ Letting go of being cool & always in control

Each Guidepost will be emailed as a module in advance of our monthly virtual meetings, and will contain key learnings and activities that will support you to get this work "into your bones". Group size is limited to a maximum of 12 participants.
