"Broadway Tunes & Biblical Texts: The Song & Spirit of Bouncing Back for Battered Southwest Louisiana Souls"

Reverend Whitney Miller, Ph.D., L.P.C., Director of Diocesan Counseling Services

In the history of our shared humankind, folks of every age have experienced tough times and responded in remarkable ways, many recorded in the stories of stage and theater, as well as on the pages of sacred scripture. We all need a little inspiration right about now to continue moving forward with hope, faith, and compassion. Join Father Whitney as he leads us onward and upward with a song in our hearts and a blessing for our souls!

“From Garden To Table”

Lynne LaVergne, Agribusiness and Family & Consumer Sciences’ Specialist

"Farming" in a smaller scale just outside our home can quickly provide the mindset to get fresh veggies from the garden to the table, without a stop in between at the grocery store. Tiny seeds, dropped in rows similar to those that Lynn LaVergne’s daddy carefully formed each growing season, sprouted not only food that made it to their family table, but a lifetime of valuable lessons. Join this combination agribusiness and “Home Ec” instructor as she shares tips and tricks for a beautiful, manageable garden from which your family can benefit throughout the different seasons in southwest Louisiana.
