

Worship Beginning

- It is helpful in your spiritual walk to have someone that walks with you and holds you accountable. We call this your "person". You may also hear us refer to this as your "accountability" partner. This is someone of the same gender who can speak truth into your life and help you grow spiritually. It should be a mutual relationship where you help each other grow in your Christian lives. Someone who can speak truth into your life without harming your relationship with them. It is probably best if it's not your spouse. It is God's design that you and your spouse grow closer to each other as you both grow closer to God, but to be your best it helps to have another person you trust to hold each other accountable. This will help you to become the Christian spouse God is calling you to become.
- Be in worship every week unless you are sick (No, we don't mean sick in your bed sleeping in 😊) or out of town).
- End the day thanking God for getting you through the challenges of the day.
- Incorporate Sunday School before/after your chosen church service.
- Once we decide to follow Jesus, we need to learn the path to discipleship. The Journey is an intentional plan for discipleship that provides a purposeful process for maturing in Christ.
- Go to lunch with someone from the church you don't know.
- Hide God's word in your heart. Start with memorizing this verse.
Revelation 3:20 "Here I am! I stand at the door and knock. If anyone hears my voice and opens the door, I will come in and eat with him, and he with me."
