ADJOURN

Manner of Addressing Council – No Council Member, while the City Council is in session, shall speak on any subject unless recognized by the presiding officer. Every speaker shall address the Chair/Mayor, and no member shall interrupt anyone who is speaking except to call him to order or for explanation.

Limitations on Addressing City Council – Any person not a member of City Council who desires to address the City Council shall first sign in at the beginning of the work session giving his or her address and the subject they wish to speak about. Permission to speak is at the discretion of the Mayor and City Council. Three (3) minutes will be allowed for each person chosen to speak. Grievances with individual employees may not be discussed. If you are selected to speak, you will be called upon by the presiding officer, and then shall come to the podium, state your name and address in the audible tone of voice for the record, and direct his/her remarks to the City Council as a body rather than to any particular member, limiting such remarks to no more than three (3) minutes.
