If, at any time, Aceso believes that any portion of the Aceso Software is or may be held to constitute an infringement, then, in addition to the indemnification set forth above, Aceso shall be entitled, at its discretion, to either procure for Client the right to continue using the Aceso Software, or replace or modify the Aceso Software so that it becomes non-infringing, provided that such replacement or modification has the same or greater functional characteristics as the possibly infringing Aceso Software, or, if the prior two (2) remedies are commercially impractical, refund to Client the portion of the charges paid by Client for the Aceso Software feature that is deemed to be infringing based upon a sixty (60) month depreciation schedule. If the Indemnified Party provides notice of a claim in accordance with (a) and is not notified within 10 business days thereafter that the Indemnifying Party intends to defend the claim, the Indemnified Party shall be entitled to defend such claim, and settle or compromise such claim, subject to the indemnification provided for herein.

9.4 Insurance.

Each party shall procure and maintain insurance adequate to cover its obligations hereunder and which are consistent with normal business practices of prudent companies similarly situated. It is understood that such insurance shall not be construed to create a limit of either party’s liability with respect to its indemnification obligations under this Section 9. Each party shall provide the other with written evidence of such insurance upon request. Each party shall provide the other with written notice at least fifteen (15) days prior to the cancellation, non-renewal or material change in such insurance or self-insurance which materially adversely affects the rights of the other party hereunder. If such party does not obtain replacement insurance or take other measures that allow it to provide comparable coverage within such 15-day period, the other party shall have the right to terminate this Agreement effective at the end of such 15-day period without notice or any additional waiting periods.

10. General Terms and Conditions.

10.1 Applicable Law.

Client and Aceso agree to make available upon the written request of the United States Secretary of Health and Human Services or the Comptroller General, or their representatives, this Agreement and such books, documents and records as may be necessary to verify the nature and extent of the costs of the services rendered hereunder to the full extent required by the Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services implementing Section 952 of the Omnibus Reconciliation Act of 1980, codified at 42 U.S.C. Section 1395x(v)(1)(I), or by any other applicable federal or state authority.

10.4 Severability of Provisions.

If any provision of this Agreement is found or held to be invalid or unenforceable, such invalidity or unenforceability shall not affect the enforceability and binding nature of any other provision(s) of this Agreement, unless such remaining provisions are not reasonably adequate to accomplish the basic purposes and intent of the Parties. The Parties hereto will negotiate in good faith to replace any invalid or unenforceable provision with one or more valid provisions that accomplish the original intent and economic agreement of the Parties.

10.5 Complete Agreement.

This Agreement (including all Exhibits, Order Documents, and/or amendments) is the complete understanding of the Parties hereto with respect to the subject matter hereof, including with respect to the terms and conditions of the license of the Licensed Software and the provision and performance of services hereunder, and no other agreements or any different or additional terms and conditions contained in any order form, Client purchase order, acknowledgement or other business form shall be binding upon the Parties hereto, or shall be effective to interpret, change or restrict the provisions hereof, unless the parties agree in writing.

instrument. Electronic signatures shall be deemed as originals between the Parties.

10.9 Relationship of the Parties.

Nothing contained in this Agreement shall be deemed to create a joint venture, partnership or agency relationship between the Parties hereto, regardless of any obligation of Client relating to the operation or maintenance of the Licensed Software, and neither Party is authorized to act toward third parties in any manner which would indicate any such relationship with the other or to bind the other.

10.10 Assignment.

Except as otherwise provided herein, neither Party may assign or transfer this Agreement or any rights or obligations hereunder, by operation of law or otherwise, without the other Party's express prior written consent, provided that no consent shall be necessary in connection with an assignment or transfer to a successor-in-interest of a Party or a successor-in-interest to the portion of a Party's business which performs this Agreement, whether such assignment or transfer is pursuant to an asset sale, merger or otherwise, so long as the assigning Party provides the other Party with reasonably prompt written notice of such assignment. In addition, nothing contained in this Agreement shall be deemed or construed by the Parties hereto or any other third party to create any rights, obligations or interests in, or confer any benefits upon, third parties.

- ii. General. In response to notification from Client, and upon Aceso's determination that the Licensed Software is not operating in accordance with the specifications described in the applicable documentation, Aceso will use reasonable efforts to provide the necessary remedial support services to correct the identified Licensed Software problem(s). Aceso will provide the diagnosis and repair process from a remote location whenever possible. If the source of the identified problem can be demonstrated to be solely the responsibility of Client (i.e. not a defect or malfunction of the Licensed Software) or caused by another component of Client's system or network, Client agrees to compensate Aceso, at Aceso's then prevailing rates, for time and expenses incurred by Aceso in diagnosing such problem. Additionally, Aceso shall have the right to charge for any effort required to provide remedial Support Services resulting from any non-approved Client modifications of the Licensed Software, which were not pre-approved, in writing, by Aceso.

- vii. Further, Aceso Support will determine the course of action to remedy that situation as quickly as possible. These actions may include replacing the failing component with an on-site spare, or continue operating the system in a redundant backup, or degraded mode (depending on failure and system configuration) to allow time for the replacement component to arrive on site.
- viii. In either case, an RMA Number is issued by Aceso, or Aceso's supplier, with instructions how to tag and return the defective part. Aceso shall use reasonable efforts to ensure a replacement part is shipped and sent within 24 hours, using an appropriate express carrier such as "Federal Express".
