Andover Fabrics. This is an archive of free patterns offered by Andover Fabrics, but does not include projects using current fabric lines. Those can be found elsewhere on their website.

Anthology Fabrics. Specializing in Batiks, you'll find lots of free patterns to inspire you.

Art Gallery Fabrics. Here you'll find lots of free, easy quilt patterns along with projects that are more challenging.

Benartex (includes Kanvas Studio and Contempo Studio). This free patterns page is organized alphabetically by pattern name. You can filter the results by studio or collection.

Blend Fabrics. Blend's free patterns and projects are inspiration and instructions for creating beautiful quilts and more.

Camelot Fabrics. Scroll down the page and look for DIY free projects. You find everything from bags, home décor, quilts and apparel.

Clothworks. This is a family-owned company selling premium quality quilting cotton, including American Made Brand Cotton Solids, Fresh Batiks, and nearly 50 different freestanding print collections each year. They have lots of free patterns to showcase their fabric lines.

Cloud 9 Fabrics. This company features organic fabric in a modern color palette. Their Make It Sew Projects include lots of quilts and some smaller projects.

Dear Stella Design. Their projects page includes free patterns and published patterns to purchase.

Free Spirit. Part of the JafTex Companies and home to designers Kaffe Fassett and Tula Pink among many others. Lots of fun projects here.

Henry Glass Fabrics. There are two sections in their Free Projects page; current projects and archived projects. They both feature full color instructions that are easy to download.

Hoffman California Fabrics. Beautiful batiks and hand-dyed fabric collections can be found here. Their patterns page includes free and for-purchase items.

In The Beginning Fabrics. A nice collection of free patterns that won't overwhelm you.

Lecien. This Japanese company sells beautiful fabric as well as embroidery products. They have a wide array of free projects.

Lewis & Irene. Based in the UK, this company produces fresh and contemporary fabrics. They have a small collection of Christmas patterns as well as many quilt projects.

Marcus Fabrics. If you like traditional fabric designs, you'll find them here. Their "Make It" page has free patterns, tips and creative ideas.

Maywood Studio. They have a nice selection of free patterns to complement their beautiful fabrics and a tips section. I think the word, romantic, describes them well.

Michael Miller Fabrics. Many free patterns in all shapes and sizes to go along with their large collection of basics, novelty and contemporary collections.

Moda Fabrics. This company has grown into a powerhouse as they've moved into supplies and distribution as well as fabric manufacturing. Along with their free patterns page, you can find tons of free precut patterns at the Moda Bake Shop.

Northcott. Rooted in tradition, this company has been around for a while. They have a nice range of free patterns for all levels.

P&B Textiles. P&B is known for its quality of fabrics, and for a wide variety of basics, traditional, contemporary and children's fabrics. They have a great selection of free quilt patterns.

Quilting Treasures Fabric. Most of their free projects are available from local quilt shops. They don't have many downloadable patterns in their project gallery, but lots of inspiration.

Riley Blake Designs (includes Penny Rose Fabrics). Contemporary fabrics along with traditional and a lot of free patterns to match. They also include some sew alongs for a deeper dive into a project.

Robert Kaufman Fabrics. A variety of quilting fabrics, novelty prints and coordinates will inspire you as you browse their selection of free quilt and sewing patterns.

Shannon Fabrics. This company is home to your favorite plush fabrics such as Cuddle (minky) and faux fur. Their free patterns include step-by-step instructions, fabric and notions requirements and include images of the finished projects to make your next project as easy and straightforward as possible.

Studio E Fabrics. Lots of novelty fabrics and panels can be found here. Their free patterns give you lots of ways to use these fun prints.

Tilda Fabrics. These whimsical and romantic fabrics were founded in Norway by designer Tone Finnanger. Their free patterns reflect the sweetness of their fabrics.

Timeless Treasures. An abundance of panels, novelty fabrics and batiks can be found here. They have a wide selection of free patterns to enjoy.

Wilmington Prints. They have a nice selection of basics and traditional prints as well as some batiks. Many free and for-purchase patterns are available to showcase their beautiful fabric collections.

Windham Fabrics. You'll find a large collection of free quilt patterns and projects with infinite variety.
