

Col. Ajay Kumar Roy, a veteran, assumed appointment of Registrar on 20 July 2018. An alumnus of Sainik School Tilaiya and National Defence Academy, graduated in Social Sciences from Jawahar Lal Nehru University, obtained Master of Science in Defence and Strategic Studies from Madras University and Master of Arts in Extension and Development Studies from Indira Gandhi National Open University. Has done a number professional courses of the armed forces. He is a fellow of Executive Course of Asia Pacific Centre for Security Studies, Hawaii, USA where government officials of more than 30 countries had participated. He has an experience of more than 35 years in various fields of operations, logistics, training, administration, recruitment and financial management. He has been a pioneer in raising new establishments, small and large, in his career as well as automation in many a organisations which he has headed in various stints.

Fond of reading books on all subjects, he has developed special interest in “Adoption of Innovations” by individuals and communities ranging from traditional innovations to digital. He has also studied the living conditioning of Vrindavan Widows and submitted a dissertation on the subject.

Col. Ajay Kumar Roy, veteran, has been honoured with a mountain feature named after him “Ajay Spur” on North Eastern borders of the Country.