a.k.a. the Watchtower Society

The Jehovah's Witnesses go door to door, distribute the Watchtower and Awake magazines, deny the Trinity, the deity of Christ, and deny His physical resurrection. Are they Christian or something else? (Source)

Jehovah's Witnesses (JW's) claim to be Christians yet they deny fundamental Christian doctrine and manipulate the Scriptures to fit in with their own beliefs. From the Church's perspective, which is what really matters, JW's have deviated from the historic, orthodox teachings of the Church that are derived from the Holy Scriptures and confirmed through the ancient ecumenical creeds. Thus, they are not true Christians. JW's have had to defend their spurious beliefs for decades.

Their headquarters is in Brooklyn, New York. They have their own Bible translation called the New World Translation.

Dr. Rhodes penned the following on Amazon.com:

I feel compelled -- in the interest of truth -- to make a brief comment about strategies Jehovah's Witnesses are using to discredit this book. There are three brief points I want to make:

1. It is understandable that Jehovah's Witnesses would seek to dissuade others from reading this book by assigning it 1-star reviews. They are not happy with the fact that countless Jehovah's Witnesses have become biblical Christians as a result of the book. Personally, I am delighted that so many Jehovah's Witnesses have come to know the truth of Scripture through this book. Praise the Lord!
2. In a few cases, Jehovah's Witnesses have composed a generalized, non-specific horrible review, and then they have posted this horrible review verbatim on ALL of my books listed at Amazon, even though they have not actually read any of them. Such actions ultimately serve to discredit the Watchtower Society, for no true follower of God finds it comfortable to bear such false witness.
3. Unfortunately, I must also report that many Jehovah's Witnesses have been spreading the idea that I myself am a former Jehovah's Witness, which is absolutely not true. I understand why they do this. The Jehovah's Witnesses teach that reading a book by a former Jehovah's Witness is worse than reading pornography. So, one way of preventing other Jehovah's Witnesses from reading this book is by claiming I'm a former Jehovah's Witness. Again, such actions ultimately serve to discredit the Watchtower Society, for no true follower of God finds it comfortable to bear such false witness.
