

The Moore Family

Reaching the world through the state of Utah

August has been a fantastic month. It kicked off with an amazing financial report at the end of July. Our support jumped 8%, which puts us at 38%. It was both exciting and a little unsettling – in a good way. We had to begin considering the possibilities of making the move to Utah in the summer of 2020. That would be a tremendous blessing. But we know that each month is unique regarding support and God’s provision so we will just keep praying, trusting, and travelling across the country to share our vision, seeking to encourage pastors and churches along the way. We don’t know what tomorrow (or next month) holds, but we do know WHO holds tomorrow.

We have been in thirteen different meetings during the month, travelling from NC, VA, WV, SC, GA, MD, NE, and KY. God has allowed us to be in new church plants as well as churches that have been faithful for years. They all have a heart for the work of God and getting the gospel to the world. Four churches took us on in the service and we have heard from a few others that have voted to add us to their Mission Family. God is good.

In Kentucky, we met a missionary whose niece, who professes to be saved, attends Utah State University, in Logan, Utah. We were able to get her contact information and share it with our friends, the Kirkman’s, who have a ministry on the campus of USU. Please pray that they will be able to contact Kaylyn and encourage her in the faith. It was just another reminder of God’s timing and plan. He makes no mistakes.

If you’re interested in our weekly email updates, which has our weekly travels as well as photos from the week, you can sign up on our website – www.utah4christ.com – and go to the connect tab. Praying for you all.
