Course Description: Bridging the Gap is a forty-two hour training course for beginning and intermediate medical/social service bilingual interpreters. Course objectives are 1) to be able to apply the Interpreter's Code of Ethics, 2) to be able to demonstrate the appropriate roles of an interpreter; 3) to be able to demonstrate the modes of interpreting; 4) to be able to demonstrate cultural competency practices; and 5) to be able to identify medical terms. The course is presented by Jewish Vocational Service (JVS) and taught by Raul O. Guerrero (Saturday). Sessions on Thursday are taught by Melanie Allmayer and will be announced at a later date. Participants will take a final exam on the last day of class. A certificate of completion is awarded based on attendance and a passing score on the final exam.

The fee for the course is $440. A fee of at least $100 is due on acceptance to hold your space, and the remaining fee must be paid before the start of class. In addition to instruction, you receive 3 textbooks for the fee of $440.
