Home Services Resource Outreach Seminar

Saturday, April 13, 2019 - 11 am to 1 pm

Representatives from

The Urban Resources Development Corp., My Way, Center in the Park, The Energy Co-op, Habitat for Humanity, Clarifi Lifelong Financial Literacy and the Christian Legal Clinics of Philadelphia will provide information on the services they have to offer elderly homeowners and seniors at affordable cost.

URDC is a Philadelphia-based non-profit organization whose mission is to stabilize communities in Germantown, Mt. Airy, East/West Oak Lane, and northwest Philadelphia through home repair and rehabilitation.

*The neighbor that takes care of everything**

MYWAY - Affordable errands, housekeeping, repairs and home care for people 55+. My Way is the affordable non-profit servicing Germantown, Mt. Airy, East and West Oak Lane, and Chestnut Hill that can handle virtually anything on your to-do list.

CENTER IN THE PARK is a community center promoting positive aging and community connections for older adults, also offering activities, classes and services, including Life Long Learning, Creative Self Expression, Health and Wellness Programs, Social Services and Housing Counseline.

CO-OP members can purchase energy from the Co-op – clean electricity, affordable heating oil, or renewable natural gas. Keep your energy dollars local and support the community.

CLC is an urban legal ministry which seeks to address injustice and poverty in partnership with existing inner city host ministries by bringing volunteer attorneys into neighborhoods where their services are most needed.

CLARIFI offers financial counseling to help you improve credit, reduce debt and avoid foreclosure.

HABITAT'S concept centers on those in need of adequate shelter working side by side with volunteers to build decent, affordable houses. Habitat also assists with Critical Home Repairs and Weatherization.
