DISTRICT 1
Suzan DeBene	Congressional District 1	DEMOCRATIC	info@delbeneforcongress.com
Jeffrey Beeler, Sr.	Congressional District 1	REPUBLICAN	jeffrey@beeler4congress.org	Likely	Parental Right to make decisions for myself and my family without the state mandating medical interventions or making them necessary to be able to participate in society. I believe that the government should not force health decisions on you or your family. School Health Curriculum - Parental Right that delicate topics including Sexual Education be taught in the home and not in a school setting. Vote to Reject R-90. SB5395 is the sexualization of our children and should be stopped. Homeschooling - Parental right to educate children as they see fit and minimize regulations around homeschooling. My family is a homeschooling family. We chose this to have parental oversight and to make sure our children were being taught by utilizing our faith in our teaching.

Marilyn Strickland	Congressional District 10	DEMOCRATIC	info@stricklandforwashington.com
Marty McClendon	Congressional District 10	REPUBLICAN-Write-in	info@electmarty.com	Very Likely	We are failing our kids and forcing overtly sexual material down to kindergarten is the absolute wrong focus. Parents rights have been under assault for years and I will advocate for educational choice, better outcomes and parental involvement. Also, I will advocate for and protect homeschooling.
