Articles of Revival

OF

Rock Hall Yacht Club
of Rock Hall, Maryland, Inc.

Be it Remembered that on this 20th day of June, 1947, there was filed to be recorded among the records for Kent County, an ARTICLE OF REVIVAL, which is in the following words, to wit:

THIS IS TO CERTIFY:

FIRST: That the Charter of the Rock Hall Yacht Club of Rock Hall, Maryland, Incorporated, a Maryland corporation (hereinafter called the Corporation), was forfeited on October 28, 1941, for the non-payment of taxes and these Articles of Revival are for the purpose of reviving its charter.

SECOND: That the undersigned James P. Cowperthwaite was the last acting president, and the undersigned T. Allan Stradley was the last acting secretary of the Corporation.

THIRD: The name of the Corporation at the time of the forfeiture of its charter was the Rock Hall Yacht Club of Rock Hall, Maryland, Incorporated.

FOURTH: The name of which the Corporation will hereafter be known is the Rock Hall Yacht Club of Rock Hall, Maryland, Incorporated.

FIFTH: The post-office address of the place at which the principal office of the Corporation in this State will be located is Rock Hall, Maryland, which is the city in which its principal office was located at the time of the forfeiture of its charter. The resident agent of the Corporation is James L. Coleman, a citizen of the State of Maryland actually residing therein, the post-office address of whom is Worton, Maryland.

SIXTH: That all annual reports which should have been filed by the Corporation with the State Tax Commission if its charter had not been forfeited have been filed.

SEVENTH: That all State and local taxes (other than taxes on real estate) and interest and penalties due by the Corporation irrespective of any period of limitation prescribed by law affecting the collection of any part of such taxes, and an amount equal to all state and local taxes (other than tax on real estate) and interest and penalties, which irrespective of any period of limitation prescribed by law affecting the collection of any part of such taxes, would have been payable by the Corporation if its charter had not been forfeited, have been paid.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, James P. Cowperthwaite, the last acting president, and T. Allan Stradley, the last acting secretary, of The Rock Hall Yacht Club of Rock Hall, Maryland, Inc., have signed these Articles of Revival this 28th day of March, 1946.
