Hot Pool Tour

As the weather turns cold, anticipate the flying yellow and orange leaves that can be seen throughout the park. Sunbathers are encouraged to wear clothing to be more comfortable.

 Recreation Tour

To celebrate the outdoors, you can visit the popular resorts like Bear Lake, Idaho's largest lake. The bike trails and boardwalks provide a fun way to enjoy the great outdoors.

Winter Recreation

Winter is the perfect time to enjoy the snowy landscape of Idaho. The resorts are open for winter activities such as skiing and snowboarding.

Pioneer Tour

Follow the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints on your journey through the beautiful mountains of Idaho. Learn about the history of the town and its early settlers.

Geology Tour

For an honest look at the natural beauty of Idaho, explore its geology. From its volcanoes to its canyons, the state offers a wealth of geological wonders.

Oregon Trail Tour

The Oregon Trail was the main route for pioneers heading west. Today, you can follow in their footsteps and learn about the history of the trail.

Museum Tour

Visit one of the many museums in Idaho that showcase the state's rich history and culture. From art to history, there's something for everyone.

Visitors and residents alike love outdoor recreation as the weather turns cold. From snowshoeing in the mountains to skiing on the slopes, there's something for everyone to enjoy.

Camping

Camping offers a great way to experience the beauty of Idaho's national parks and forests. Whether you're looking for a campsite near a lake or in the mountains, you'll find what you're looking for.

Rallying

Rallying brings together people who love to race. From hot rods to rallies, there's a race for everyone at Idaho's rally events.

Shoveling

Shoveling is a great way to stay active during the winter months. Whether you're working in your garden or just enjoying a walk in the snow, you'll get your heart rate up.

Family Fun

There are plenty of family-friendly activities to enjoy in Idaho. From visiting the museums to going on a bike ride, there's something for everyone.

For Additional Information

For more information on outdoor activities in Idaho, contact the Idaho Tourism Department. They can provide you with more information on where to go and what to do.

 bye