

Click Here to Register

STORMWATER SESSIONS LIVE

2021

Stormwater and Climate Resiliency Crossroads

May 11th

Port Defiance Regional Stormwater Treatment Facility

Dana de Leon, Watershed Planner, and Jessica Knickerbocker, Project Manager, City of Tacoma, Washington

June 8th

Rainfall Metrics for Infrastructure Planning and Design in a Warming Climate

Daniel Wright, PhD, Assistant Professor, Hydroclimate Extremes Research Group, University of Wisconsin-Madison

July 13th

The Coralville Flood Resilient Action Plan: Engaging the Community

V Fixmer-Oraiz, CEO & Founder, David De La Torre, Community Organizing Planner, Astig Planning

August 10th

Stormwater BMP Performance Monitoring

Katie Holzer, Watershed Scientist, City of Gresham, Oregon

Sept. 14th

Evaluating Centralized Green Stormwater Infrastructure in Pittsburgh's Negley Run Watershed

Jordan R. Fischbach, PhD, Director of Planning and Policy Research, The Water Institute of the Gulf

Oct. 12th

A Social-Ecological Approach to Watershed-Scale Climate Resilience

Mitchell Pavao-Zuckerman, PhD, Assistant Professor, University of Maryland

Webinars are eligible for 6 total hours of continuing education or professional development hours, 1 hour per webinar. Sessions are recorded live and available on demand if missed.

ISWEP is proud to offer our annual webinar series free to city members. ISWEP professional members should use code "ISWEP21B" when registering. Discounts are also provided for groups at one office. Please contact Ben Curtis (bcurtis@iowastormwater.org) to inquire about group discounts.

A full refund is available if notification is received three or more days prior to May 11, 2021. Registration is transferable.

