

Wisconsin Association of Women Police Marcie Repta Memorial Member Scholarship

W.A.W.P. Trustee Marcie Repta passed away unexpectedly on June 27, 2019. In recognition of Marcie's passion for our profession and dedication to service, Marcie's spouse has provided the funding for this academic scholarship in the amount of $1000. Only current members of W.A.W.P. will be eligible for the scholarship. If you are not a current member, membership registration is available at WAWP.org. Please see page 2 for further requirements of this scholarship award.

W.A.W.P. training and networking was a passion of Marcie's. Marcie was the first and only female officer for the Watertown Police Department for 17 years. She had to share a "men's" locker room for most of those years. She retired from the force after 27 years of dedicated service to the Watertown Community.

Marcie was a woman of many talents and respected as a leader. Here are a few statements that people expressed regarding Marcie's impact on their lives, careers and communities.

- * "Marcie was one of the organization's (W.A.W.P.) longest members fighting hard so that women officers were treated fairly as their male counterparts." (S. Lubus)
- * "She paved the way for future female officers in not only Watertown, but other municipalities as well. Thank you for your strength and courage, you opened many doors for future generations." (T. Hempelmann Mielke)
- * "Marcie was not just the first female in Watertown, but one of the first in the state. She was an amazing role model for female officers starting in the industry." (L. Walter)
- * "One could always count on her to serve others or support her communities-from police work, to dogs and pitching in to raise awareness on several fronts and funds for others." (K. Wegner)
- * "Her dedication was an example to us all and her work with service dog in training was such a gift." (K. Wolff)
- * "She put fear into many a man but could always give a big loving bear hug." (V. Schumann)

Marcie served as President of the W.A.W.P. and was active as a Trustee in the years that followed, providing invaluable guidance and mentorship to those who followed in her footsteps. In honor of that dedication to training and networking, please apply for the membership academic scholarship and continue Marcie's mentorship.
