

Neal Stump

Equity Team Leader/Head of Asset Management for the Southeast Region (SERO) – Real Estate

Neal E. Stump is the Equity Team Leader/Head of Asset Management for the Southeast Region (SERO) at MetLife Investment Management's (MIM) Real Estate group. In this role, Neal leads a team of 5 Asset Managers and 2 Associates overseeing the SERO equity real estate portfolio that includes office, industrial, retail and MF assets located in major markets throughout the Southeast.

For 12 years prior to joining MetLife, Neal was Senior Vice President, Asset Management, responsible for the acquisition and management of assets throughout the Southeast for American Realty Advisors, a private pension fund advisor headquartered in Los Angeles, CA. Over a 14-year tenure, he was previously an Executive Director – Asset Management for Morgan Stanley US Real Estate Investing and its predecessor companies Lend Lease Real Estate Investment and Equitable Real Estate Investment Management.

Neal is a graduate of Wake Forest University and earned master's degrees in business administration and real estate from the Babcock Graduate School of Management at Wake Forest University and Georgia State University, respectively.

Additionally, he attended a year of post graduate study in Architecture at Virginia Polytechnic Institute and holds a CCIM designation from the Commercial Investment Real Estate Institute and CRX, CDP, CLS, and CSM designations from the International Council of Shopping Centers.