A Biblical Walk Through the Mass

As Catholics, the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass is the center of our Faith. We celebrate it every day. We know all the responses. We know all the gestures. But do we know what it all means?

Discover how the Mass is nothing short of amazing. Through it, we encounter God in the most intimate way possible as we hear Him speak to us in the Liturgy of the Word and as we receive Him Body and Blood, Soul and Divinity in the Holy Eucharist. The words, the gestures, and the rituals of the Mass are rich in meaning. Everything we say and do in the Liturgy is steeped in biblical language. A Biblical Walk Through the Mass explores the extraordinary biblical roots of the Liturgy and reveals what it all means and why it all matters. This fascinating tour of the Mass will renew your faith and deepen your love for and devotion to the Holy Eucharist.

Holy Cross will be offering this 5 week study both on:

Monday nights from 6:30 - 8 pm - October 11, 18, 25, November 8, 15 in the Library.

Wednesday mornings from 9:30 - 11 am - October 13, 20, 27, November 3, 10 in Wellen's Hall.

Short videos featuring Dr. Edward Sri are a key part of the program. A deeper dive of the material can be found in his book which you can purchase on your own.

Contact Bridgette Cosentino @ 480-981-2021, ext. 206 or bcosentino@holycrossmesa.org for more information.

Do you enjoy wood staining/refinishing and/or upholstering?

Holy Cross Church could use your talents in refinishing our kneelers, which are in great shape, but need a little freshening up! If you are able to donate some of your precious time, we will supply the materials if you can supply your time and talent!

Contact Fr. Larry or Bridgette Cosentino in the parish office if you would like to assist us with this project.

¿Te gusta repintar o tapizar madera?

La Iglesia de la Santa Cruz podría usar sus talentos para retocar nuestros reclinadores que necesitan una manita de gato. ¡Si puede donar su tiempo y talento, todos los materiales serán proporcionados!

Por favor póngase en contacto con P. Larry o Bridgette Cosentino en la oficina parroquial si desea ayudarnos con este proyecto. Gracias.

Knowing our Faith... Why we believe

This is the last in a series we started a few weeks ago in the bulletin regarding questions that commonly arise with regard to the Real Presence of Christ in the Eucharist. It is our hope that by studying and discussing these questions and answers, our hope was to enrich our understanding of this mystery of the faith. In conjunction, Holy Cross is offering a class on "A Biblical Walk through the Mass" that beautifully explores our celebration of the Mass. See our Bulletin and Website for more information on this class.

Why do we call the presence of Christ in the Eucharist a "mystery"?

The word "mystery" is commonly used to refer to something that escapes the full comprehension of the human mind. In the Bible, however, the word has a deeper and more specific meaning, for it refers to aspects of God's plan of salvation for humanity, which has already begun but will be completed only with the end of time. In ancient Israel, through the Holy Spirit God revealed to the prophets some of the secrets of what he was going to accomplish for the salvation of his people (cf. Am 3:7; Is 21:28; Dan 2:27-45). Likewise, through the preaching and teaching of Jesus, the mystery of "the Kingdom of God" was being revealed to his disciples (Mk 4:11-12). St. Paul explained that the mysteries of God may challenge our human understanding or may even seem to be foolishness, but their meaning is revealed to the People of God through Jesus Christ and the Holy Spirit (cf. 1 Cor 1:18-25, 2:6-10; Rom 16:25-27; Rev 10:7). The Eucharist is a mystery because it participates in the mystery of Jesus Christ and God's plan to save humanity through Christ. We should not be surprised if there are aspects of the Eucharist that are not easy to understand, for God's plan for the world has repeatedly surpassed human expectations and human understanding (cf. Jn 6:60-66). For example, even the disciples did not at first understand that it was necessary for the Messiah to be put to death and then to rise from the dead (cf. Mk 8:31-33, 9:31-32, 10:32-34; Mt 16: 21-23, 17:22-23, 20:17-19; Lk 9:22, 9:43-45, 18:31-34). Furthermore, any time that we are speaking of God we need to keep in mind that our human concepts never entirely grasp God. We must not try to limit God to our understanding, but allow our understanding to be stretched beyond its normal limitations by God's revelation.

Conclusion

By his Real Presence in the Eucharist Christ fulfils his promise to be with us "always, until the end of the age" (Mt 28:20). As St. Thomas Aquinas wrote, "It is the law of friendship that friends should live together. . . . Christ has not left us without his bodily presence in this our pilgrimage, but he joins us to himself in this sacrament in the reality of his body and blood" (Summa Theologiae, III q. 75, a. 1). With this gift of Christ's presence in our midst, the Church is truly blessed. As Jesus told his disciples, referring to his presence among them, "Amen, I say to you, many prophets and righteous people longed to see what you see but did not see it, and to hear what you hear but did not hear it" (Mt 13:17). In the Eucharist the Church both receives the gift of Jesus Christ and gives grateful thanks to God for such a blessing. This thanksgiving is the only proper response, for through this gift of himself in the celebration of the Eucharist under the appearances of bread and wine Christ gives us the gift of eternal life.

Amen, amen, I say to you, unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you do not have life within you. Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life, and I will raise him on the last day. For my flesh is true food, and my blood is true drink. . . . Just as the living Father sent me and I have life because of the Father, so also the one who feeds on me will have life because of me. (Jn 6:53-57)

Words spoken by doubting Thomas after he had seen Jesus after His Resurrection...

"My Lord and my God" - John 20: 27-28

John wanted to encourage us who have not seen Jesus, to...

Believe without seeing!

See with the eyes of your heart (Ephesians 1:18)
