Independently!

Hurricane Preparedness

The Center for Independent Living of Northwest Florida would like to encourage everyone to learn more about how they can prepare and stay safe during hurricane season. This week our communities faced the potential of encountering both Hurricane Marco and Laura. While both just ended up affecting our communities as mild tropical storms it could have been much more severe. Find out how to be more prepared in the face of a natural disasters by watching our Hurricane Preparedness Webinar!

Voters with a Disability: November 3rd is quickly approaching, so it's important to stay ahead of Florida's guidelines and deadlines. Every individual over eighteen has the right to a ballot and the opportunity to vote as independently as possible. Find out more about the options that are available to ensure your voting rights are protected.

Florida Judge Blocks State Order for Schools to Reopen: A Florida judge Monday granted a temporary injunction against the state's order requiring school districts to reopen schools during the Covid-19 pandemic. This order will leave the option to reopen school districts to our local school boards. The Center will continue to update the community when more information is available.

Our dedicated team conducts different online events and posts each week for our community. We know not everyone can attend in person, so we archive them on our website! Visit our Series page and find out more about what we have to

Community Events: As much as we try, we know we cannot provide every opportunity that may be needed. That's why CILNWF always includes a list of other community events and resources that may be of interest to you. The Spirit of CIL Award

We are happy to present the Spirit of CIL Award to all essential workers, first responders, and healthcare personnel in Escambia, Santa Rosa, Okaloosa, and Walton Counties. This has been a hard few months for everyone in our community, and we couldn't have gotten through it without all of them. If you are, or know anyone who has been an essential worker please give them our sincerest thank you!
