Host/Producer – Karyn Beach

Karyn Beach has spent several years hosting podcast. She started with Get It Together Girl and that morphed into Fun. Feisty. Fabulous! Both podcasts focused on women and women's issues. With a degree (a long time ago) in broadcast journalism, podcasting, for Karyn, was like a breath of fresh air.

Although she was about 10 when she gave her life to Christ, Karyn has had a lifelong struggle with her faith, only coming in it fully over the past eight years or so. Unfortunately, it was a diagnosis of clinical depression after a failed suicide attempt that finally brought her to her knees before the Lord.

Karyn would have been fine with a day job and her Fun. Feisty. Fabulous! podcast. But God had something else in mind. First, he compelled her to offer a podcast that she would produce to her church. However, the church had lots of great plans underway and there simply wasn't room for a podcast. But Karyn had done her part in putting the concept together and presenting it to the church. Much like Pontius Pilate, she washed her hands of it.

Yet in November of 2018, God put another Christian podcast on her heart. This one she was to host and produce. To Karyn, it sounded like a lot of work. Like Moses, she came up with a litany of excuses why it couldn't be her. Karyn said, "Lord, there are more successful podcasters than me. I know there are people who know the Bible backwards and forward ... unlike me. Ummm, I've got work, a podcast, a book I'm writing. I simply don't have the time."

Yet for every reason Karyn gave, the Lord persisted. The idea wouldn't go away. Finally, Karyn relented. She continued, "Finally, I did what I should have done in the first place, listened and obeyed." Then during a church service in January 2019, Karyn bowed her head to prayer and the most magical thing happened. God opened the floodgates about the podcast. Karyn explained, "All of the sudden, everything came flooding to me – the name, the tag line, the color scheme, the format. I immediately went home and started writing everything down and it continued. The artwork, the frequency, it was utterly amazing what God was doing. It wasn't my will but His."

She began putting it together and God, always having a sense of humor, solved one of her problems. Initially, she said, she didn't have time for another podcast. All the sudden, she lost her job. Within a week, checks for over $3,000 showed up in her mailbox.

As of the launch of The Journey – Step by Step, Karyn still doesn't have another day job but all her needs have been met.
