Quartet Development

Prefer to only be chorus and quartet member coming year. Possibly age catching up where it takes more time to practice and learn music. Also need to take off a few weeks for other interests.

Why not attend regularly

I miss 5 months with Arizona winter trip
Travel
Lack of members learning music and preparing for rehearsal. Not the same level of fellowship as we once had (but much of that is the changing of the world we live in today) BHS changing of membership rules.

Question ->

What can be done to make rehearsals more exciting or productive for you?

I find rehearsal fun every week
Go back to requiring guys to be off music by a certain date----and enforce it. I get tired of being "off the music" and then having John spend all his time working on words and notes with members that are still on the music
I think it's going well
Less vamp-up, more singing. Learning tags is not my thing.
More men on risers!
Provide variety. Know music better by everyone.
Less tags
Come up with a plan to encourage more uniform dedication levels among members during the week, in preparation for rehearsals. Maybe send members a survey asking their opinions on what would help them the most to best learn their parts. Maybe more sectional work, & having section leaders instruct their section on smaller pieces at a time.
More singing, and less need to work on notes and words
I have a bad back and have trouble standing on the risers for over 45 minutes keep a good variety of activity, like quartets, tags, and old songs, new songs.
Run through the songs w/o working a section (like leads). Means everyone knows their part. Off the music means just that. Stop "Vampups" and get back to vocal warmups. Stop back rubs. More recognitions.
More quarteting!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!
Enjoy current repertory review and tag singing
Mix-up the weekly schedule..not the same thing at the same time. Institute craft sessions.
More singing, more sectionals (away from rehearsal), less tag singing, be singing within 15 minutes of start continuing quartet activities, and sectionals, and encouraging more dedication to the music outside of chorus.
Learn more polecats and fun songs
Unsure
