

Linking Seniors & Services since 1974

Care Transitions Coach

Peninsula Agency on Aging (PAA) is currently seeking applicants for the position of Care Transitions Coach. The Care Transitions Coach is responsible for providing information and guidance to patients or their family caregivers in order to prevent avoidable hospital readmissions. Patients are taught self-management skills to include medication management, scheduling follow-up medical appointments, improving patient-practitioner communication skills, and recognizing symptoms which indicate a worsening condition requiring medical intervention. The Care Transitions Coach is considered a teleworker and must be available and accessible by phone and email during regular office hours. Extensive travel required. Annual flu shot required.

Successful candidates will possess at least 2 years of related experience, preferably with the senior population, excellent oral, written and interviewing skills, ability to respect and relate to patients and family caregivers from diverse cultural backgrounds, ability to work well with individuals who have literacy, cognitive, and/or physical limitations, ability to “coach” rather than direct, knowledge of Person Centered principals helpful, basic knowledge of health care industry, computer literacy, excellent organizational skills, ability and willingness to self-motivate and work independently as well as collaborate with a team as needed, valid driver’s license and reliable transportation.

Individuals age 60+ and persons with disabilities encouraged to apply.

Required Education: Degree from an accredited college or university in human services or health care field.

Full Time w/ benefits

Salary: $34,112 - $39,104

Drug free workplace, Senior Friendly Workplace, AA/EOE

Please apply online at <http://www.paainc.org> and select “About Us” then “Employment Opportunities.”