FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MEDIA RELEASE – 11th JULY 2014

BRAND NEW PREMIER GRADE SQUASH COMP TO SHOWCASE ELITE PLAYERS

NSW Squash is about to kick-start a new Premier Grade Pennant squash competition to promote the sport and provide elite players with a pathway to greater achievements. This new competition is timed to launch and coincide with the 2014 Glasgow Commonwealth Games, giving public awareness of this dynamic sport a real boost.

Six teams of four players have been selected by NSW Squash based on www.squashmatrix.com player rankings. Top players such as Aaron Frankcomb and Josh Larkin are confirmed to compete, alongside well know veterans of the sport such as Michelle Martin and Jeff Bond.

The host venues have been confirmed as Willoughby Squash Club, Thornleigh Squash Centre, Dural Squash & Fitness, Cardiff Sports Centre, North Shore Squash Centre Lane Cove, and Elanora Squash & Fitness.

Each of the ten competition rounds will be played at a single venue, to give spectators, supporters and players the best atmosphere. Rounds are played one fortnight apart, with a Grand Final event being announced towards the end of the competition.

People are invited to spectate the Premier Grade Pennant Squash competition free of charge at any venue, in a bid to increase interest and an understanding of the sport.

Team sponsorship opportunities still exist for any organisations wanting to support and promote the sport.

The competition draw and schedule is available on the following page. Media interviews, live coverage and photo opportunities are gratefully welcome!
