

Training Resources

Training your pet doesn't have to be boring – in fact, the more fun you have with it the more fun your pet will have and the faster he or she will learn!

Some nearby training resources:

Hastings: Rio Gran www.riogran.net 651-480-4726

Zumbro Falls: Best for Pets www.bestforpetsonline.com 651-470-5217

River Falls: Crystal Clear Canine Training www.crystalclearcanine.com 715-403-1772

Apple Valley: Bark Busters Home Dog Training www.dogtrainingminneapolis-mn.com 612-808-071

Farmington: Skyview Ranch LLC Dog Boarding & Training 651-463-1974

Eagan: Wagging Tails Pet Resort www.waggingtailspetresort.com 651-483-3647

Rochester: Paws Abilities Dog Training www.paws4u.com 507-624-0190

Training classes are great for dogs because your dog will have the opportunity to socialize with other dogs in a safe environment. If you are unable to find a training class that fits your schedule, there are great book and website resources available as well.

The ASPCA has a "Virtual Pet Behaviorist" site with articles about dealing with a variety of training subjects for dogs AND cats.

Kyra Sundance of Do More With Your Dog has authored several books on dog training that are widely available in stores, in libraries, and online. Her positive and fun approach makes training pleasurable for dogs and humans, plus she shows how to train dogs to do some pretty cool tricks.