Breaking open the Word 30th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Reflection

Putting ourselves on a pedestal above others is not uncommon, especially if we compare ourselves to others who do not behave as we do or do not have what we have. It is easy to find fault in someone who in appearance does not believe as we do. But this exercise of exaltedness is usually directed for the benefit of the exalter at the expense of others. What is terribly wrong here is that no one is “judge” of himself or others in the eyes of God.

If we are praying like the Pharisee in the gospel today, we must stop and collect ourselves, give pride a boot and humble ourselves so God can enter into our lives. How can we follow Jesus if we are not open to his ways and teachings?

Let us ask him to show us what we lack in charity and forgiveness to others and help us be generous in giving to others just as he has been generous to us.

We pray that we will love others as our Lord loves all of us.

Deacon Andy Calunod

Readings

First reading — Sirach 35:12-14, 16-18 The Lord is not deaf to the wail of the orphan, nor to the widow when she pours out her complaint.

Responsorial psalm — Psalms 34 The Lord hears the cry of the poor.

Second reading — 2 Timothy 4:6-8, 16 The Lord will rescue me from every threat.

Gospel — Luke 18:9-14 All who exalt themselves will be humbled; all who humble themselves will be exalted.

‘An Evening of Aloha’ Ono grinds, great entertainment & a good cause

The kickoff event to support the Damien and Marianne Museum on Friday, Nov. 8 from 5:30 to 9 p.m. will feature food tastings from top restaurants, great entertainment and tours of the Damien and Marianne Heritage Center.

The food tastings will include: seared island fish, and green tea edamame risotto from Tiki’s Bar and Grill, signature wok fried rice from Side Street Inn, Philly steak slider & penne pasta from 11th Avenue Eatery by M.C., crème fraiche panna cotta with strawberry gelee from Munch Catering, Hawaii Ranchers beef sider from AmeriStar Catering, seared jumbo scallop with togarashi spice on soba noodle and ko chi jung and ume vinaigrette from Marriott Beach Hotel, shrimp portofino from Romano Macaroni Grill, and southwest mac & cheese from Ruth’s Chris Steak House.

There will also be wine pairings.

Tickets are just $75 apiece, $90 at the door. They may be purchased at the Heritage Center or online at aneveningofaloha.eventbrite.com.

In addition, the Marriott Beach Hotel is offering a special $169 per room rate for the night of Nov. 8 in conjunction with the Evening of Aloha event. Rooms are limited. Please see the St. Augustine website, staugustinebythesea.com to book your room.

Stewardship envelopes for 2014

As good stewards of what is given to us, we must be also good stewards in preserving creation. Paper items must be used appropriately and as we prepare for 2014 we will make a change in how our stewardship envelopes are given out.

To comply with charitable giving for tax purposes, a person must give a minimum of $250. After looking at our records, those who do not meet that minimum for annual giving will not receive envelopes for 2014. We suggest that you use a plain envelope with your name on it; you will be responsible for tracking your own gift-giving. Therefore, for those who give above the minimum your assigned number may change.

Stewardship envelopes will be available in early December. If you have any questions, please contact the parish office. Mahalo for your understanding and patience.

All Souls Day remembrances

Nov. 2 is All Souls Day. Throughout November, we will pray for the deceased members of our parish community, our benefactors and family members.

Please use the All Souls envelopes that are available in the sacristy. Write down the names you want remembered and place your offering in the envelope and drop it in the collection basket.

October is Mary's month

Please pray the rosary daily for world peace, especially in the Middle East. Mary is a powerful intercessor for us.

St. Augustine Closet open Nov. 2

Get an early start on Christmas and Thanksgiving at the popular St. Augustine Closet.

All you need, we have. Also, linens, books, toys, golf clubs, children's clothes, aloha shirts, muumuus etc. Visit the closet on Saturday, November 2 from 9:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. in the Damien courtyard.

Food drive for Our Lady of Kea'au

We are collecting nonperishable food items and toiletries to support the Outreach Ministry at Our Lady of Kea'au from Nov. 3 through Thanksgiving. We have supported the Franciscan Sisters who operate this outreach ministry for several years. Drop off your nonperishable food items and unopened toiletries in marked boxes in the church beginning Nov. 3.

All Souls Day celebration

The Feast of All Souls (Nov. 2) is on a Saturday this year. It will be celebrated at the morning Mass that Saturday, but the evening Vigil Mass will be for the 31st Sunday in Ordinary Time.

Remembered in prayer

The Sisters of the Sacred Hearts at Regina Pacis Convent will remember the parish family of St. Augustine in their prayers and works the week of Nov. 10-16. If you have special intentions you wish remembered, please let the sisters know by phone, mail or email. As Sisters of Perpetual Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament, their chapel is open daily from 7:30 a.m. to 7 p.m. to anyone who wishes to spend time in prayer. The sisters may be reached at: 939-5822, 1120 Fifth Ave., Honolulu HI 96816-5828 and reginasscc@cs.com.

Maryknoll open house

Maryknoll School applications for the 2014-15 school year are now available and the application priority deadline is Dec. 15, 2013. Open House for K-8 will be from 1 to 3 p.m. Sunday, Nov. 10 and Open House for the high school will be from 6 to 8 p.m. Thursday, Nov. 14. To RSVP for open house, email admission@maryknollschool.org, Maryknoll is a coeducational school.

Damien open house

Damien Memorial School's fall Open House is from 6 to 8 p.m. Wednesday, Nov. 6. Damien is a coeducational school for grades 6-12. For more information email li-mos@damien.edu.

"Absolute Faith" Damien and Marianne of Moloka'i Heritage Center

"Absolute Faith" intertwines the stories of Father Damien, Mother Marianne and the people of Kalaupapa using historic and contemporary photographs, quotations, poetry and song. There are many never-seen-before portraits from the early 1900s that offer a rare and compelling glimpse of life in the land of exile.

The Heritage Center is in front of the church in the ABC Building on the second floor. It is open daily. A lift is available for those with special needs. For arrangements for groups of 20 or more, call 922-3121

Damien statue by Maui artist

We are seeking to commission a bronze outdoor statue of St. Damien by Maui artist Gary Thomas. "Damien...Through the Spirit," is a depiction of Father Damien, who gave of himself to care for those banished to Molokai because they had Hansen's Disease. We are seeking donations to help us obtain the statue, which will be placed in a meditation garden. To donate or for more information please see Fr. Lane.

Our musical termites

Termites have taken up residence in our organ and the damage is such that the organ must be replaced. The replacement cost is $100,000. If you might be interested in helping purchase this new organ, please contact Fr. Lane. Mahalo.

November's Song

Learn more about St. Marianne Cope as the Sisters of St. Francis of the Neumann Communities and the Diocese of Honolulu present the play "November's Song" Nov. 8-10 at the Sr. M. Almeida Student Center at St. Francis School. Tickets are $20 per person, $10 for students under 18 with a valid student ID. Proceeds will be used for the care of elderly and infirm Sisters of St. Francis. For more information, call Hillary Johanson at 988-3301 or hjohanson@sosf.org
