ABOUT ELAINE

Elaine is a full-time professional, experienced vocalist, entertainer who enjoys sharing her talent, joy, love of a variety of music for all ages; and, the Lord, through singing, ministry, speaking and performance.

An award winning singer/songwriter, Elaine has performed at the Iowa and Nebraska State Fairs; So. Dakota State Fair and County Fairs - Turner, So. Dakota; Plymouth, Lemars Iowa and Clay County Fair, Spencer, Iowa; and York, Wayne, Coffax, Cumming, Spencer, Nebraska; LIFE LIGHT; 2014 Red Power Roundup International Harvester Nat'l Convention, Mitchell SD Corn Palace Festival; Bar None Cowboy Church, Newton Iowa, Buffalo Roundup & Arts Festival, Custer SD as well as numerous churches and senior events to name a few! She saw one of her dreams come true when she performed on the stage of the Grand Ole Opry during a national Country music competition and when she performed in Branson; and, in Las Vegas!

Elaine also acts as a promoter/coordinator of shows and fundraisers, such as the Annual Heritage Music Fest in Elk Point, So Dakota held the 3rd Saturday in July featuring National, Regional & local acts.

A licensed square dance caller/instructor, Elaine can add a little do-si-do to any event with a variety of square dance music. For audience participation, she can even teach an introductory square dance.

Elaine is a Breast Cancer Survivor who shares her journey of hope at cancer awareness and fundraising events with her testimony and songs. Elaine enjoys spending time with her family, reading, traveling, dancing, and singing with her husband, Paul. Her faith in God is the foundation for her life and she trusts in the plan He has in mind for her — Jeremiah 29:11.

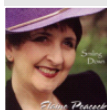

"Elaine is not just a talented performer, she's an entertainer. Her audiences know that they've been entertained when they see one of her shows. In my opinion, you can't go wrong if you add her to your roster of talent at your next event or concert."

Elaine Peacock is not just a talented performer and a professional entertainer... she is the “real deal”.

Comfortable with audiences of all sizes, ages and interests, she easily engages the crowd through her spirit, energy and enthusiasm! She delights in walking right down into the audience to shake hands, touch a shoulder, chat with the crowd and share her personal experiences. She touches their hearts with messages of hope and inspiration delivered with sincere conviction. Her unique, personal style encourages audience participation. They will be clapping along, smiling ear to ear and begging for more songs! Elaine offers a variety of music -- Country, Gospel, Childrens', Christmas, Patriotic; and you will enjoy her Patsy Cline Tribute Show too!

She has recorded and released eight CD's— “Country Rose Praise”, (now retired album) at Gene Breedon Studios, Nashville, TN which includes favorites and original gospel hymns; a Patsy Cline Gospel Country at Dave Russell's North 40 Studios, Sioux City, IA; “Smiling Down”, “Everyday is Christmas”, and “Spirit of America” with original Gospel, Christmas and Patriotic songs written or published and produced by Nashville Hall of Fame songwriter, Dennis Morgan, who wrote “I Was Country When Country Wasn't Cool and George Strait's hit “River of Love”. In 2009, she recorded a children's album “The World is Full of Colors” and a traditional gospel album. “Hymns for Him” with Dennis! Dennis selected Elaine after hearing her on a Christian radio station as he was traveling through Sioux City, Iowa in 2005. He called and offered her the opportunity to record his gospel songs, which was one of many answered prayers. In 2015 she recorded “Happiness Health & Heaven” 12 song CD with Hit songs written by Dennis!!!! He came all the way from Nashville to record at her home! NOW AVAILABLE ON iTunes, CDBABY.COM, & AMAZON.

It received the 2016 “Soft Country CD of Year” award at NTCMA Festival; and 2017 South Dakota Country Music Hall of Fame “CD of Year”.

An award-winning singer/songwriter and 2009 National Traditional Country Music Hall of Fame & 2010 South Dakota Country Music Hall of Fame Inductee, she has sung at numerous churches, county and state fairs, women's events, city events, Country and Christian music festivals, retreats, receptions, cancer and corporate events. A treat for her is to be joined by her husband, Paul, who sings like Jim Reeves. It is also a gift to be accompanied by pianist and 2015 South Dakota Country Music Hall of Fame Inductee, Mayor of Elk Point, Isabel Trobaugh. They all team up for a very talented, enjoyable show with a special flair.

Elaine Peacock has a wonderful ministry. She gives you an evening of enjoyment that only she could provide. Her witness and faith journey are the center of her life. What could you ask for?

Elaine was a big hit at our festival. She's incredibly talented. I review music and when I hear something like Elaine's “Patsy Cline Album” & her other albums, I know there is still flabbergasting talent right in our own back yard.
