GREEK ORTHODOX ARCHDIOCESE OF AMERICA

Prot. No. 33/05

February 16, 2005

To the devout Clergy, the Presidents and Members of the Parish Councils and the entire Greek Orthodox Family in America.

Beloved brothers and sisters in the Lord,

On behalf of our Holy Eparchial Synod, and filled with particular honor and joy in Christ, we deliver today to the Holy Metropolises and Parishes of the Greek Orthodox Archdiocese of America the revised Uniform Regulations for immediate application and use.

The process of drafting these Regulations constituted a laborious task and required great amounts of time and methodical work. A large committee comprised of clergy and lay members of the Archdiocesan Council proceeded with a very careful revision of the old Uniform Regulations on the basis of the provisions of the new Charter of the Holy Archdiocese, which went into effect in February 2003. The draft of the revised Regulations, prepared by the above-mentioned Committee, was the subject of extensive discussions and amendments by the 37th Clergy-Laity Congress, which convened in New York in July 2004.

The final draft of the Regulations, which thereby resulted from the 37th Clergy-Laity Congress, was submitted via the Eparchial Synod to our Ecumenical Patriarchate for ratification. After diligent study, the Holy and Sacred Synod of the Ecumenical Patriarchate ratified the Regulations. The following pages contain the text of the Uniform Regulations as ratified by the Great Holy Mother Church of Christ.

His all Holiness Ecumenical Patriarch Bartholomew accompanied the Synodal ratification of these Regulations with an inspiring letter that immediately follows and heads the articles of the Uniform Regulations of the Holy Archdiocese of America. In this letter, among other remarks, His all Holiness expresses his patriarchal gratification and blessing.

St. Paul, the Apostle to the nations, addressing the Church of Corinth in c.55 A.D. writes: God is not a God of disorder but of peace (1 Corinthians 14:33). He also adds: all things should be done decently and in order (1 Corinthians 14:40). What the great Apostle Paul emphasized to the Corinthians was the need for order, dignity and peace within the Church. He also emphasized to the Corinthians the need to avoid any disorder, confusion, disorganization, and turmoil; for the God of Christians is a God of order and peace, and not a God of disorder, confusion and turmoil.

It is exactly for the advancement of order, decency and peace within the parishes of the Holy Archdiocese of America that we publish these Uniform Regulations. We are certain that they will be adhered to with care and precision. We are also certain that they will contribute not only to the advancement of order and proper functioning of our parishes, but also to the edification of these parishes in Christ for the spreading of Orthodoxy and for the glory of God.

Finally, brethren, rejoice, be edified, be comforted, be of one mind, live in peace; and the God of love and peace will be with you (2 Corinthians 13:11).

With paternal love in Christ,

+ DEMETRIOS

Archbishop of America and Exarch of the Ecumenical Patriarchate

Prot. No. 97

February 16, 2005

Your Eminence, Archbishop Demetrios of America, most honorable Exarch of the Atlantic and Pacific Oceans, beloved brother in the Holy Spirit and co-celebrant of our Modesty: Grace and peace from God be with you.

With an abundance of spiritual joy we send herewith to your most beloved Eminence the duly ratified uniform, derived from the current Charter of your Holy Archdiocese, Regulations that you had submitted for approval to the Great Holy Mother Church of Christ.

Certainly, it does not escape our attention that the Church, the Bride of Christ, is basically a spiritual institution. Since, however, She has revealed herself in the world and continues her course in it, She incorporates in herself the necessity of a canon law, a fact that our Holy Fathers and Shepherds before us took care of securing by way of Holy Synods. Besides, the exhortation of Saint Paul is eternally repeated to all members of the Church that "all things should be done decently and in order" (1 Cor. 14:40), so that the mystery of the salvation of each one of us is worked in peace and with the pre-suppositions of the basic principles of the rights and duties that derive from the fact that we are members of Christ.

We congratulate you and bestow our Patriarchal blessing and praise, to all who offered hard and long labor for the drawing of the drafts of the now approved Regulations. We hand them over to you so that they henceforth be exactly adhered to and applied by all brother Hierarchs of the Holy Archdiocese of America, the pious Clergy, the God-loving Monks and Nuns and the Christ-loving faithful. Thus, all of you walking in concord, will be able to offer to your fellow citizens a clear evidence of our Orthodox faith, as this is expressed and experienced in the life of Church, the arc of our common salvation, causing joy and praise to our martyr Great Holy Mother Church of Christ and edification in Christ of the Orthodox flock in America. To Christ Jesus the Lord belongs the glory, the honor and the power together with His beginningless Father and the All Holy and Life-Giving Spirit to the ages of ages. Amen.

+ BARTHOLOMEW
Patriarch of Constantinople beloved brother in Christ

PREAMBLE

In January 2003, the Holy and Sacred Synod of the Ecumenical Patriarchate granted to the Greek Orthodox Archdiocese of America a new Charter which affirms the unity and oneness of the Greek Orthodox Archdiocese of America and elevated the Dioceses to Metropolises of the Archdiocese. The Charter provides the foundation for the revision of the Regulations of the Archdiocese so they address contemporary issues and needs, reflect the true spirit of the Gospel and our mission as Orthodox Christians in America, and provide for the promulgation of the Regulations to implement the governance of the Archdiocese

In April 2003, Archbishop Demetrios of America directed the Administration Committee of the Archdiocesan Council to lead the work to revise the Regulations of the Greek Orthodox Archdiocese of America. The intense labors of the Administration Committee consisting of Hierarchs, Priests and lay people were enhanced by significant contributions from Archbishop Demetrios, our Metropolitans, the Holy Eparchial Synod, Archdiocesan Council, Metropolis Local Councils, Metropolis Chancellors, Archdiocesan Presbyters Council, Archdiocesan Benefits Committee, Retired Clergy Association and the Archdiocese Administration staff. The Regulations contained herein are the result of that work, a work of high quality, a spirit of unity and responsibility, representing input from over one hundred individuals and well over one thousand hours of cumulative effort.

The Regulations of the Greek Orthodox Archdiocese of America contain the policies, rules, operation procedures and controls to promote effective governance of Church activities at all levels; plus, communications procedures to assure those in positions of responsibility understand these policies, rules and regulations and the obligations of their position.

The proposed Regulations of the Greek Orthodox Archdiocese of America include Part One, Archdiocesan Regulations; Part Two, Uniform Metropolis Regulations; Part Three, Uniform Parish Regulations; and, Part Four, Revision of Regulations.

In July 2004, the proposed Regulations of the Greek Orthodox Archdiocese of America, contained herein, were adopted by the 37th Biennial Clergy–Laity Congress in New York City and ratified by the Ecumenical Patriarchate on January 3, 2005.

Section 2: The Board of Auditors shall audit financial records of the prior year and prepare a report of such audit for presentation to the Parish Assembly. After review by the Parish Assembly, the Parish Council shall transmit copies of the final audit to the respective Hierarch and the Archdiocese.

Section 3: A vacancy on the Board of Auditors shall be filled by the Parish Council by electing a successor therefor from amongst the parishioners of the Parish in good standing for the unexpired portion of the term of such vacancy.

ARTICLE 34

PARISH FINANCES AND ARCHDIOCESAN TOTAL COMMITMENT

Section 1: The Parish Council shall be the custodian of all Parish funds.

Section 2: The Parish fiscal year shall be the calendar year. At the first Parish Assembly of each year the Parish Council shall present a financial report detailing all income and expenses for the preceding year.

Section 3: The budget for the ensuing year shall likewise be submitted for approval by the Parish Assembly at the last regular meeting of the prior year.

Section 4: The Parish budget shall include appropriations for sending its delegates to the Clergy-Laity Congresses and Local Assemblies.

Section 5: The Parish Budgets must include a line item for Archdiocesan Total Commitment, which shall be calculated in accordance with the decisions of the most recent Congress.

Section 6: Full disclosure of each Parish's finances and support through the Total Commitment program are critical to the operation of the Archdiocese and the fulfillment of its mission and ministries. The respective Hierarch is responsible for ensuring that each Parish in his Archdiocesan District/Metropolis submits the financial records required under these Regulations and meets its Total Commitment to the Archdiocese, as required under these Regulations. As such, he has the authority to take such measures and to impose such financial and other restrictions, as he deems necessary and appropriate to enforce the Parish's obligations.

Section 7: Parish Financial Statements must be forwarded to the Archdiocese and Metropolis no later than May 15th of the subsequent year and must:

- A. Include any and all Corporations, Institutions and Entities under the direct or indirect control of the Parish or Parish Council. Financial activities outside of the normal Parish operating statements must be reported, however, they can be presented separately and need not be consolidated into the Parish operating statements.
- B. Include a Balance Sheet, Income and Loss Statement and Budgets approved by the Parish Assemblies.
- C. Be certified in writing as to their validity by the Parish Priest, Parish Council President and Treasurer.
- D. Be prepared according to the guidelines as set forth by the Archdiocesan Council.
- E. Include and report all activities of the Parish including but not limited to Building Funds, Festivals, Special Appeals or any and all restricted Fund Activities.
- F. Submit the Parish's Financial Statements and complete copies of all insurance policies currently in force for the Parish.

Section 8: Each Parish is required to meet the Total Commitment financial obligations and financial reporting requirements as outlined in Section 5 of this Article.

- A. In the event a Parish does not submit the required financial records to the Archdiocesan District/Metropolis within thirty (30) days of receipt of a written request for such records, the Parish's commitment may be raised twenty-five percent (25%) from the previous year's amount. No meetings or discussions with a Parish will be held until such records are received.
- B. Each Parish must remit monthly to the Archdiocese the portion of its Total Commitment allocation for Archdiocesan and Metropolis needs as determined by the Clergy-Laity Congress and the respective Hierarch.
- C. Failure to remain current in the Parish's Total Commitment and Archdiocesan Benefits Assessment prevents ratification of Parish Council elections. Parish Council elections will not be ratified until the year's commitment is met or agreed arrangements are approved by the respective Hierarch.
- D. If a Parish refuses to remit its Total Commitment, the Archdiocesan District/Metropolis may conduct a certified audit of the Parish at the Parish's expense.
- E. If a Parish is delinquent in its Total Commitment to the Archdiocese for the prior year, the Parish's delegates will not be allowed to vote at the Clergy-Laity Congress unless authorized otherwise by the respective Hierarchy, as specified in Article 4, Section 6.

Section 9: Notwithstanding the other provisions of Article 34, Section 5, the respective Hierarchy shall have the authority to make special provisions in the matter of a Parish's Total Commitment financial obligations to the Archdiocese, as he deems necessary and appropriate. The Archdiocese shall be notified of all such special provisions made by a respective Hierarchy.

PART FOUR

ARTICLE 35

AMENDMENT OF REGULATIONS AND OFFICIAL TEXT

Section 1: These Regulations may be amended as provided in the Archdiocesan Charter, Article 22 and such amendments shall become effective immediately following their ratification by the Ecumenical Patriarchate. In the event that no response is received from the Ecumenical Patriarchate within ninety (90) days following receipt of the amendments by it, the amendments shall be deemed approved. Following their approval, the Regulations as amended, must be faithfully and firmly adhered to by all the Parishes, whether or not they were represented at the Congress, and regardless of whether they voted with the minority.

Section 2: The English Text of these Regulations shall be deemed for all purposes the official text.
