Glenwood is set amid rolling hills on the eastern shore of Lake Minnewaska and has 8,000 acres, providing lots of open space to take you boating, waterskiing, wakeboarding, windsurfing, kayaking, or jet skiing. You can launch your boat in three places—by the Glenwood City Beach, the DNR landing, and in Starbuck’s marina.

Lake Minnewaska is about 13 miles long and nearly 8,000 acres, providing lots of open space to take you boating, waterskiing, wakeboarding, windsurfing, kayaking, or jet skiing. You can launch your boat in three places—by the Glenwood City Beach, the DNR landing, and in Starbuck’s marina.

11. Hunt’s Resort
Hunt’s Resort is a small, quiet family resort located just a few feet from the shore of Lake Minnewaska. There are nine all-season modern, homey, and furnished units with housekeeping. The lakeshore cabins have beautiful views of the lake and the RV Park has shady sites with full hookup.

12. Lakeside
The original 1909 pavilion grew into a regional attraction hosting such bands as the Andrews Sisters, the Everly Brothers and Louis Armstrong. It burned to the ground in 2003. The present ballroom opened in 2005.

13. Glenwood City Beach
Lake Minnewaska is about 13 miles long and nearly 8,000 acres, providing lots of open space to take you boating, waterskiing, wakeboarding, windsurfing, kayaking, or jet skiing. You can launch your boat in three places—by the Glenwood City Beach, the DNR landing, and in Starbuck’s marina.

14. Barsness Park
This 100 acre recreation area is managed by the city of Glenwood. The land was donated to the city by James E. Barsness in 1949. Additional tracts of land were purchased by the city in the 1970s. The park features camping, picnic areas, a skateboard park, hiking and cross country ski trails, playgrounds and baseball, softball and soccer fields. Even before it became a park, the area was used for recreation. The first official ski jumping tournament in Glenwood was held on the ski hill in 1912. At one time there were 2 ski jumps and 3 lighted downhill runs on the ski hill.

15. Peters’ Sunset Beach
Organized in 1914 by Henry Peters and other partners, the resort opened on June 1, 1915. The first 9 holes of the Pezhekee National Golf Course were constructed between 1962 and 1967. An additional nine holes were added in the 1990’s. Peters’ Sunset Beach Resort was listed on the National Register of Historic places in 1982. Today the resort is operated by the third and fourth generations of the Peters family.

16. Mount Lookout
The Mount Lookout scenic vista lies on five acres of land donated to the City of Glenwood by Mrs. Jennie Webster in September of 1934. The popular observation point was modernized in 1938 to provide a wayside rest, parking and picnic area. The State Highway Department and National Youth Administration (NYA) funded the $7,500.00 project. The wall of native stone was built along the outer edge of the original two knolls that had been filled. A description of the geologic formation of the area was added to the overlook.

17. Lake Amelia
Lake Amelia has 940 acres, an average depth of 21 feet, a maximum depth of 71 feet, a length of almost three miles and a shore line extending over seven miles. It was named in honor of Amelia Brayman, a daughter of a pioneer who settled on the east shore. A small channel connects Lake Amelia with Lake Villard.

18. Lake Villard
Lake Villard lies just to the north of Lake Amelia, this nearly round lake has an area of 536 acres, a median depth of 11 feet and maximum depth of 16 feet, a diameter of somewhat over one mile and a total shore line of about 3 ½ miles.

19. Villard
The city of Villard was platted in 1882 around Lake Amelia and Lake Villard. The city was named in honor of Henry Villard, president of the Northern Pacific Railroad company in 1881-1883, at which time the railroad was built through Pope County.
