

Lillehammer Olympic Legacy Sports Centre

Lillehammer Olympic Legacy Sports Centre and Norwegian Ski Federation presents:

Lillehammer International Ski Jumping Camp for women – Digital Edition

13th-15th of April 2021

THE CAMP EXPERIENCE

- A daily physical workout
- A daily digital lecture/talk each day at 6 pm
- A daily digital coaches meeting each day 7.30 pm
- A daily digital athletes meeting each day 7.30 pm
- *All times in CEST +2 (Oslo-time)

Presenters digital daily lecture:

Maren Lundby: Olympic champion and World Champion. Have won three consecutive World Cup overall titles.

Sarah Hendrickson: World champion and winner of the first ever women's World Cup overall.

Eva Pinkelnig: Three times World Cup victories and two silver medals from the world championship in Seefeld 2019.

Christian Meyer: Head coach for the Women National team in Norway

Line Jahr: Former top athlete and now coach for the development team in Norway. Responsible for the camp from the Norwegian Ski federation side.

Jermund Lunder: Coach for the Women National team in Norway.

PRACTICAL INFORMATION

- Age group: Female athletes and coaches 15 years and older (Born 2005)

PRICE AND PAYMENT INFORMATION

- Due to the COVID 19 situation, we have decided to offer the digital camp for free in 2021.

REGISTRATION*

- Please find registration form here <https://bit.ly/34apNOT>
- Registration deadline: 8th of April
- Questions? Contact us: pererik.maehlum@olympiatoppen.no / line.jahr@skiforbundet.no

We have put a big effort into the program and would appreciate that you participate in the whole program if you sign up for the camp.*

CAMP ORGANIZATION

- The Lillehammer International Ski Jumping Camp is organized by the Lillehammer Olympic Legacy Sports Center in cooperation with the Norwegian Ski federation. In this edition of the camp, we also have valuable financial support from Ski Jumping Canada.

About the Lillehammer Olympic Legacy Sport Center

Lillehammer Olympic Legacy Sport Centre aims to give young athletes, coaches & leaders the possibility to develop their skills inside wintersports. The center is located in Lillehammer and was established after the Youth Olympics in Lillehammer 2016.

Powered by:

