

SaddleBrooke Community Outreach Scholarship Program - Qualifications and Criteria

Amount: $3,000 per academic year ($1,500.00 per semester) at four-year colleges for a maximum of four years; or $1,500 per academic year ($750.00 per semester) at community colleges or tuition-based trade schools for a maximum of two years.

Purpose: Awards may be used for tuition, books, room and board and other qualified educational expenses at an accredited college, trade or vocational institution. The number of scholarships awarded each year is based upon the availability of funds and are awarded on a competitive basis. Funds are sent directly to the school. Generally, no funds may be given directly to a student. Under exceptional circumstances and with substantiating documentation, the student's Scholarship Committee Liaison may authorize the transfer of funds to the student using protocols adopted by the Scholarship Committee.

Qualifications: To qualify for an SBCO scholarship, a student must:

1. Reside in the secondary SBCO service area
2. Be completing the final year of high school.
3. Demonstrate financial need.
4. Have a minimum cumulative 2.50 GPA during all the years of high school.
5. Take a minimum of three academic subjects per semester during their Junior and Senior years.
6. Submit three letters of recommendation, of which at least one must be from a member of the educational staff.
7. Submit a completed SBCO Scholarship Application form, a student resume, and student essay.
8. Participate in a personal interview with SBCO Scholarship Committee representatives.

Criteria: The awarding of a scholarship will be based upon the following criteria:

1. Demonstration of financial need.
2. The student's grades during their four years of high school.
3. The recommendations from teachers and other school or community representatives.
4. The content of the student's resume (see the Application Form).
5. The quality of the student's essay (see the Application Form).
6. The results of a personal interview with the SBCO Scholarship Committee representatives.

Deadline: March 1.

Applications must be received by the SBCO office no later than March 1.
