

Behavioral Health's 2020 Professional Seminar Series

Helping Clients Navigate Divorce: Integrating Legal Options and Emotional Strategies

February 28, 2020

1 p.m. – 4 p.m.

Central DuPage Hospital

3 CEU, Fee $25

A person's experience of marital breakdown can range from devastation and debilitation to relief and excitement. In this program, Theresa Beran Kulat, JD, and Ken Celiano, PsyD, provide practical information on how the divorce process works. Mental health professionals will receive practical tools and tips to help couples and individuals understand and navigate the divorce process.

Learning Objectives:

- Identify the 'equitable' nature of divorce law and effect on outcomes
- Articulate dispute resolution models and a framework for how to educate clients on which to choose, depending upon core issues
- Observe how lawyers and therapists can work together in the Collaborative Divorce Process
- Identify the function of written agreements to memorialize boundaries for future behavior

Theresa Beran Kulat, JD, is founder and lead attorney at Trinity Family Law, PC in Downers Grove. She has focused on Collaborative Practice and mediation since 2003 and limits her practice to settling cases, empowering healthy lives and effective co-parenting.

Ken Celiano, PsyD, is a health psychologist, divorce coach, mediator, family business consultant and performance coach with Accesscoach, Inc., Park Ridge and Chicago. Dr. Celiano received specialized training in collaborative divorce, mediation and alternative dispute resolution.
