

BIG HEART TEAS

The best-tasting cup of tea began in 2012 when founder, Lisa Govro, fell in love with the healing power of herbs and began her search for the very best tea ingredients in the world.

Building personal relationships with the world's top organic tea farmers, we've developed a holistic direct-sourcing process that focuses in equal parts on the quality of the tea, the lives of the farmers who grow it and the environment.

We're proud to have partnered with some of the best chefs and baristas in the country to help them reinvent their tea service. Together, we're redefining tea service, one cup at a time.
